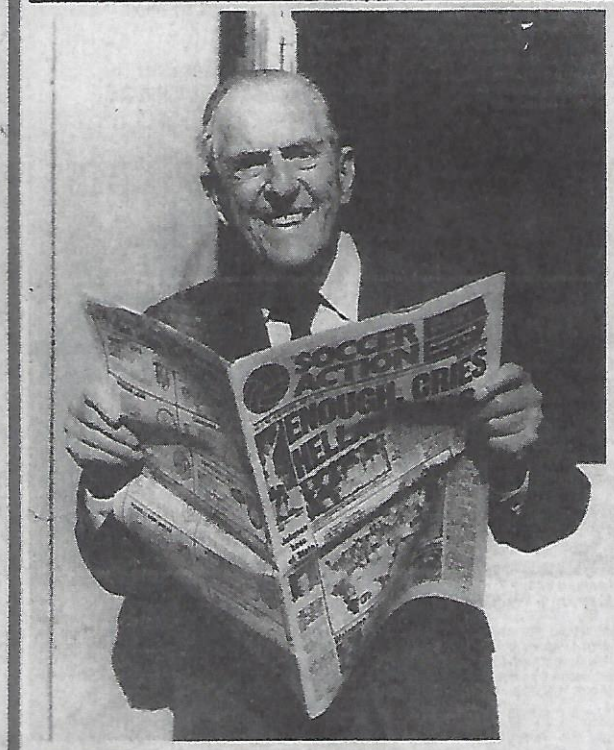
Praise and a shrewd tip by the grand old trooper



Stanley Holloway reads "Soccer Action" outside Melbourne's Comedy Theatre during a break from the show "The Pleasure o His Company" in which he starred with Douglas Fairbanks.

Visiting English entertainer Stanley Holloway tips Liverpool to win the English FA cup on May 21.

"I also tip Liverpool to get the treble," added Stanley. "They stand a great chance of winning the league championship, and the European cup too."

After giving him a copy of "Soccer Action" last week, we asked him what he thought of it. "A great paper, and very interesting for the many different migrants here in Australia," he said.

Stanley Holloway, after appearing with Douglas Fairbanks in "The Pleasure of his Company" at Melbourne's Comedy Theatre, now leaves for Hong Kong (if there are any flights) so he hopes to catch the Cup final on TV.

He also loves to watch a good game of cricket, and was interested to learn the outcome of the Britain v Australia Test matches in London. — Bernie Waslin.

AND NOW NSW v. VICTORIA

One of the most significant matches of 1977 will be played at Middle Park on Saturday when Sydney's best, Western Suburbs, meets Melbourne's best, Alexander.

The match will show whether or not Alexander can keep up with the leaders.

If Wests slip against Alexander, Marconi may take over the league leadership. Rale Rasic's men meet West Adelaide Hellas at Marconi Oval on Sunday.

By LAURIE SCHWAB

The big match in Adelaide on Sunday is Adelaide Juventus v Sydney Olympic at Olympic Sports Field. Juventus will field Agenor Muniz from Hakoah and former Celtic star Dixie Deans, providing the air controllers' strike ends so that Deans can make his way to Adelaide.

League officials have issued the assurance that all matches will go ahead as scheduled. If the air controllers' strike continues, travelling teams will go by bus, train or chartered plane.

Alexander president Jim Mangopoulos said this week: "We had been looking forward to being the first team to beat Wests but that honor was taken from us by Olympic at the weekend. Nevertheless, I am confident we can match Olympic's feat."

It's a bold prediction in the light of Alexander's ordinary form over the past two weeks.

It managed to beat Canberra only in the last minute when Branko Buljevic scored and the previous week its defence was tissue-thin despite the big 4-1 win over Brisbane Lions.

Under 18 titles postponed

The Coca Cola national under 18 championships scheduled to start in Sydney yesterday (Tuesday) have been postponed for seven days.

The championships will now start next Tuesday, with the semi-finals at Sydney Sports Ground on Saturday and the final at Wentworth Park on Sunday as the curtain-raiser to the Sydney Olympic v. Alexander national league game.

The postponement was necessary due to the air controllers' strike which prevented teams from travelling to Sydney on schedule.

The programme is:

Group A at the Reg Bartley Oval (behind Rushcutter Travelodge):

Tuesday, 1.15 pm, A.C.T. v Western Australia; 3 pm, Victoria v Northern N.S.W.

Wednesday, 1.15 pm, A.C.T. v Victoria, 3 pm, Western Australia v Northern N.S.W.

Thursday, 1.15 pm, Western Australia v Victoria; 3 pm, A.C.T. v Northern N.S.W.

Group B at Wentworth Park:

Tuesday, 1.15 pm, Tasmania v Queensland; 3 pm, N.S.W. v South Australia.

Wednesday, 1.15 pm, Tasmania v N.S.W.; 3 pm, Queensland v South Australia.

Thursday, 1.15 pm, Queensland v N.S.W.; 3 pm, Tasmania v South Australia.

Friday is a rest day or a day which is held free in case one of the preceding round robin rounds is not played due to inclement weather.

They'll rule on matches

The national league will decide today (Wednesday) when to play the three matches that were postponed last weekend due to the air controllers' strike. The matches are: SM-Hellas v St George, J.U.S.T. v Brisbane Lions and Hellas Adelaide v Brisbane City.

CUP GAMES SHARED AROUND

Australia's home games in the World Cup qualifying tournament will probably be shared between Sydney, Melbourne and Adelaide.

The tentative programme is: v. Hong Kong in Adelaide, July 10; v. in Sydney, August 14; v. South Korea in Melbourne, August 27 and v. Kuwait in Sydney, October 16.

This is yet to be ratified by the ASF executive.

ASIA MAY GET BOOT

MONTE CARLO — The International Football Federation (FIFA) will break relations with the Asian Football Confederation (AFC) if it does not reinstate Israel within 90 days.

The decision was announced by FIFA after its fourth "round table on world soccer" meeting, presided over by FIFA chairman Joao Havelange.

Israel was expelled from the AFC after its annual congress in Kuala Lumpur last year.

A new rule was formulated at the Congress which said a country ceased to be a member if its continued membership of AFC hindered the progress of football within the Confederation.

The decision to expel Israel under the rule was immediately proposed by Kuwait and unanimously approved by delegates from 21 countries.

He'll write about District League

Journalist Stan Gyles has been appointed publicity officer for the Victorian District Soccer League.

"I hope to project fair comment on the District League clubs' activities," explained Mr Gyles.

"To do this, co-operation is required by club officials in providing regular match reports and getting all scores through to the scorekeepers by 6.00pm each Sunday evening."

Clubs should also contact Mr Gyles on Sunday evening with match reports.

"By doing this your club will get the publicity it deserves," concluded Mr Gyles.

Kokoska finally gets a new club

Victorian State defender Steve Kokoska, on the transfer list since the start of the year, was finally transferred last week to State League club Essendon Lions.

Essendon paid Sunshine City a transfer fee of about $6000 and agreed to an end-of-season friendly game, the proceeds from which will go to Sunshine.

Kokoska, who started with Sunshine's juniors and played more than 200 senior games for the club, had a brilliant 1976 season, which he capped by winning the "Soccer Action"-Yugoslav Airlines Player of the Year award.

He was in the Australian (B' squad last year and played his first State game a few weeks ago against South Australia.

He decided late last year that he would seek a transfer to further his career.

He trained with South Melbourne Hellas but Hellas was not willing to spend the money Sunshine was asking for.

Then he had a few trial games with Green Gully Ajax which was also scared off by the transfer fee.

Essendon became interested and Kokoska trained there for three weeks until the club finalised negotiations with Sunshine last Friday.

Essendon manager Frank Burin told "Soccer Action", "I recommended during the Ampol Cup that we buy a centre back, especially after we lost Wally Kulyk through injury.

"It took a lot of hard bargaining, but we finally managed to secure Kokoska and I'm sure he'll prove a big asset."

Essendon needed reinforcements following the transfer of John Gardiner to South Melbourne Hellas and the loss of Ivan Grujicic to Canberra City.

Apart from Kokoska, Essendon has also signed Hellas players John Kennedy and Howard Andrews, who were transferred as part-payment for Gardiner.

Meanwhile Makedonia goalkeeper Jim Green who formerly played in Western Australia, has been put on the transfer list at his own request.

Billy Rae, a dynamic midfielder, who twice won Albion Rover's best player award, is also up for grabs.

News that Frankston forward Bill Buchanan and defender Ernie Merrick were available after having failed to come to terms with the club came as a shock as both have been fine players for Frankston.

Kokoska's Sunshine team mate John Scholten, a fine goalkeeper, is also available. He had a disagreement with the club during the Ampol Cup.

Deaf couple wins Pools

Loretta Cochrane of Sydney, deaf since birth, is last week's top Australian Pools winner with a total prize of $186,999.95.

Her winning entry, one of four 50 cent games she played, won 34 separate dividends plus the Australian Pools scoop.

Although 23 points was possible, no entry in either the Australian or Vernons UK Pools scored 23 points.

There was only one entry in Vernons and none in the Australian Pool with 22½ which would have paid a dividend in Australia of $344,551.20.

Of the 13 winning units from around Australia at 22 points, Loretta's entry alone scored a total of 26½ points from her best 11 thereby clinching the scoop for her outright.

Both Loretta and her husband Robert have been deaf since birth as the result of rubella.

When Pools first started in NSW they entered faithfully each week, but because week after week their selections didn't come near to a prize they gave the Pools away.

In January of this year they learnt that another deaf person whom they know, David Lynn, a clerk with OTC, had won $126,620.40.

They haven't missed a week on the Pools since.

At the time that David won his prize he was in Adelaide competing in the national deaf games.

He was told of his win while playing golf on the Mt. Osmond golf course.

Loretta called her syndicate, 'I wish Queensland' because she had never been there and has heard such glowing reports about the wonderful scenery and weather from her mother in law, and a brother of hers who lives near the Gold Coast.

She also believes the climate would be better for her husband who suffers from Asthma.

"The money means a home of our own — we live in rented premises — and more than anything — security," Loretta said in sign language.

"We have had a real battle up till now," Robert added.

150 BOYS FOR RASIC COURSE

More than 150 boys are booked into the Rale Rasic-Johnny Warren coaching course at the Englefield Stadium, Dural (NSW) from May 9 to 13.

Only a few vacancies remain for the second course of the school holidays, from May 16-20.

Overseas tour by schoolboys

The 1976 Australian School boy champions left Sydney for a 20-day tour of South-East Asia.

The boys, all aged 16, represent the northern NSW area.

The team's manager, David Coote, said the trip had cost $24,000, most of which had been raised privately.

The boys will play seven teams in Hong Kong, Macau, Kuala Lumpur

Portuguese substitute for Muniz?

Having made Agenor Muniz the most expensive soccer player in Australia by selling him to Juventus Adelaide for about $15,000, Hakoah-Easts are planning to put the money to good use.

Hakoah is trying to sign a top striker from the Portuguese First Division.

And it has signed a Scottish striker from Portsmouth in England.

He is Bobby McGuinness, who played for Motherwell in Scotland before he went to Portsmouth in the English Third Division.

McGuinness is 5ft 11ins and 11st 8lbs.

Muniz switched to Juventus after announcing he would never again play for Hakoah.

He was upset that he had been replaced in the match against St George, which ended in a 1-1 draw.

Muniz said he had been unhappy at Hakoah "for some time".

He joined Hakoah with fellow Brazilian Hilton Silva in 1971 and later had a season with Pan Hellenic on loan.

The ball-playing midfield star has played 17 full internationals for Australia.

He also represented Australia as an under 23 player.

Muniz is the sixth big-name Juventus recruit. The others are Gary Marocchi (Azzurri, Perth), Dixie Deans (Luton, England), John Nyskohus (Lion, Adelaide), Brian Northcote (Granville, Sydney), and Zoran Matic (Beograd, Adelaide).

ARGENTINA HERE WE COME!

But tail-end of series will test us

The draw made in Hong Kong last week gives Australia a real chance of qualifying for the World Cup finals.

RALE RASIC

I believe we will make it.

I believe we will win the final qualifying round against Hong Kong, Iran, Kuwait and South Korea because our players are better prepared for travelling than the players of the other countries.

The draw, in case you missed it in "Soccer Action" last week, is:

AUSTRALIA v Hong Kong — July 10, v Iran — August 14, v South Korea — August 27, v Kuwait — October 16.

HONG KONG v Australia — October 30, v Iran — June 19, v South Korea — June 26, v Kuwait — October 2.

IRAN v Australia — November 25, v Hong Kong — November 18, v South Korea — November 11, v Kuwait — October 28.

SOUTH KOREA v Australia — October 23, v Hong Kong — December 4, v Iran — July 3, v Kuwait — October 9.

KUWAIT v Australia — November 19, v Hong Kong — November 12, v Iran — December 3, v South Korea — November 5.

As you can see, we play each country at home before our first away game.

This theoretically, gives us the chance of getting maximum points on the board at home and defending in the away games.

Of course it works only in theory.

We may drop points at home against defensive teams and we may win away against strong teams.

All I am saying is that we will amass sufficient points to win the group and thus qualify.

Our biggest advantage is that the group will be played on a home and away basis. It's much better for us than a single tournament in a specific country.

What goes against us is that our away matches against Iran and Kuwait — on November 25 and November 19 — will be played during the Australian off-season.

This means our players will not be involved in league matches at that time.

Also, it seems we will probably have to play both games on an extended visit to the Persian Gulf area.

With the match against Kuwait scheduled for November 19, we would have to get there by about November 17.

We would then stay until after the November 25 match against Iran — a total of nine days away from home in a hostile environment and certainly a hostile climate.

It is always hot in Iran and Kuwait — and the heat carries with it an oppressive humidity.

After the first game, against Kuwait, our players will feel drained. Iran was smart indeed to ensure that it plays Australia during this period.

Yet Iran will find it hard against South Korea in Seoul, just as we did in 1973 when three games were required to break the deadlock between us and the Koreans.

And Iran won't find Hong Kong a pushover either.

Franz van Balkom, the former Ringwood Wilhelmina player, has done a wonderful job as Hong Kong's coach.

The national league will have a big bearing on Australia's results.

By the time of our first match — against Hong Kong on July 10 — the national league will be about 10 weeks old and the Socceroos will have benefited enormously from the higher standard of competition.

When they qualified for the 1974 World Cup, the players were playing only in State competitions which were vastly inferior to the national league.

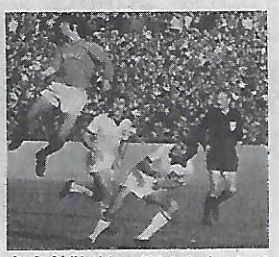
The relationship between the standard of club soccer and the standard of the national team can be traced way back.

In 1951, for example, club soccer in Australia was absolutely shocking.

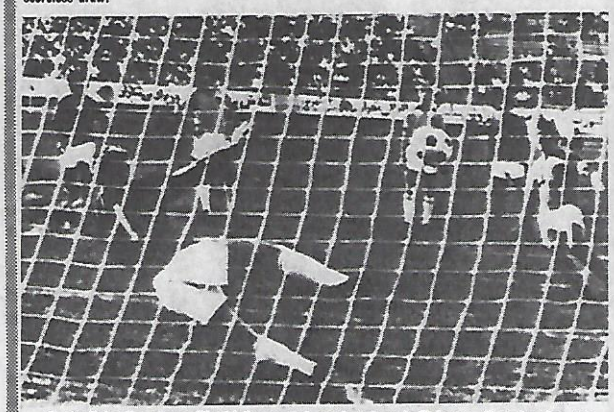
That year, an English FA team visited and beat the Australian national team 17-0, which still stands as a record in international soccer!

Franz van-Balkom, coach of Hong Kong.

Attila Abonyi gets there too late to prevent this South Korean forward from shooting during the 1973 World Cup match in Sydney, which ended in a scoreless draw.



Iran's Adelkhani leaps high to head goalwards under pressure from Australians Ray Richards and Doug Utjesenovic.



Australia's disastrous World Cup match against Iran in Teheran. Here Iranian captain Parvis Gholichkhani (extreme right) beats Australian goalkeeper Jim Fraser for Iran's second goal in its 2-0 win. However, Australia had a goal to spare as it had won the first game 3-0 in Sydney.

Branko Buljevic (right) heads home against South Korea during the first half of Australia's 1973 World Cup qualifying game in Seoul. The score was 2-2. The first game, in Sydney, had ended in a scoreless draw, so a tie-breaker had to be played, and Australia won 1-0 to reach the finals.

Well done, Mike Laing

Western Suburbs' phenomenal success in the national league tends to indicate that a lot of team building has been going on.

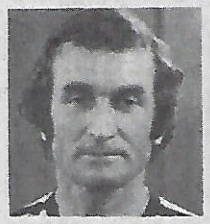
Yet it hasn't.

The only new players in Wests' team are Bobby Noble and Graham Norris from England and Col Curran, who returned after a season in Newcastle.

Have they made the difference? Have they brought about a transformation which has shot Wests from ninth place on the NSW State League ladder last season to the top of the national league this year?

No!

The man who has caused the dramatic improvement is Mike Laing, the coach who returned to Wests after an extended absence overseas.



Mike Laing

Mike Laing has made all the difference. Under him Wests is a disciplined team playing with strength and purpose.

Noble, Norris and Curran are of course fine players but Laing has shown once again that a top leader is more valuable than a top player.

Praise must also go to Gerry Chaldi, coach of Hakoah.

Despite some unfortunate results recently, Hakoah is still one of the league's leading teams — one with extremely capable players who play outstanding football.

Like Wests, Hakoah did not enter the transfer market willy-nilly. In fact at the time of writing, Hakoah was fielding a team which included not one player bought this season.

The English FA tourists who beat Australia 17-0 in 1951, top from left: outside left R. Langton (Blackburn), right back H. Bamford (Bristol Rovers), left back J. McCue (Stoke), centre half R. Flewin (Portsmouth), outside right F. Broome (Notts County), outside right G. Hurst (Charlton). CENTRE: left back F. Lock (Charlton), inside left W. Smith (Birmingham), centre forward I. Clarke (Portsmouth), centre half S. Owen (Luton), goalkeeper E. Burgin (Sheffield Utd), left half J. Shaw (Sheffield Utd). BOTTOM ROW: goalkeeper S. Bertram (Charlton), inside right J. U.18s in good hands for titles

Mike Wells, assistant coach of Hellas Adelaide and coaching director for the SA Junior Soccer Association, is now also coaching the South Australian under 18 squad.

The under 18s are playing in the national Coca Cola championships in Sydney this week, until Sunday.

The squad is:

PETER AMMIRATO, (club Adelaide City, school Gilles Plains H.S.); BOB BARONE, (Adelaide City); BOB GORDON-EDWARDS. (Elizabeth City); GARY HIGGINS (Enfield Victoria, Morphett Vale H.S.); JOHN JACOB (Windsor); PETER KLEUT (Beograde, Royal Park H.S.); PETER KOSMINA (Polinia, Taperoo H.S.); TONY LAPAGLIA (Adelaide City,); JOHN LOVEDAY (Windsor, Para Vista H.S.); ROGER MATTHEWS (Noarlunga Utd., Christies Bch H.S.); ADRIAN MICHELON (E. D. Azzurri); CHRIS MILLER (Unley H.S.); TONY MURRAY (Woodville Melita); TONY SCUTERI (Beograd); GLYN WHAPPLINGTON (Noarlunga United, Christies Bch H.S.); MIKE WHEARE (Woodville Melita).

Non-Travelling reserves: PETER BRAVEY (Tea Tree Gully, Banksia Park H.S.); DAVE HILTON (Para Hills); JOHN DEDES (West Adelaide, Woodville H.S.); SCOTT PRIDEAUX (Para Hills).

GUEST BILLY PIRIE INSPIRES OLYMPIC

Billy Pirie

The resolve that flowed from having new Scottish guest player Billy Pirie knock in a goal inspired Sydney Olympic to a 2-0 win over league leader Wests, at Sydney sportsground.

Pirie scored a disputed second goal after the ball had spilled from Wests' goalkeeper Terry Eaton's hands in the 34th minute.

It was this goal that sealed the result, because, whilst West knocked at the Olympic door all the second half, their efforts to score were thwarted by two superb clearances off the line by skipper George Gibson.

Added to this was the near flawless goalkeeping by the athletic Gary Meier.

Wests still head the table, but now share the position on ten points with Marconi, with a six better goal difference.

In the Pirie incident Wests' skipper Peter Wilson challenged Canberra referee Bob Mee claiming the ball had been kicked out of the goalkeepers hands, but the decision remained unchanged.

Wests 0 Olympic 2

"Apart from the fact that it was a fair goal, there was a penalty to be given in Olympic's favour, if it wasn't," Mee explained after the match.

The game kept the biggest Sydney club crowd this season of 7,253 in a ferment of delight.

Clive Eaton and Ken Lindsay missed narrowly for wests in the opening 15 minutes, but then came Mike Cross' opening goal for Olympic after a foul by Wilson.

Joe Senkalski touched the ball to Cross and a spanking left-foot drive took a slight deflection from Wilson as it went in.

Import Pirie began to stamp his class on the game, looking every inch a forward as he flicked headers down to the non-existent support.

However, the rest of the Olympic players were lifting their game and in the 34th minute Ray Botham fought for the ball on the goal line and Pirie nudged it in.

Although every man in Wests' team came into play which pinned Olympic deep in their territory in the second half, they could not beat the consistent Gibson and Meier.

In the 53rd minute Gibson headed off the line from a drive by Wests' active midfielder Dave Harding, and 15 minutes later, he got a boot to Bobby Noble's shot.

Referee Mee came in for some severe criticism especially when he failed to caution Wests' striker Graham Norris when he caught Don Allan in flight.

Nonetheless, he had a sound game and at least avoided the yellow peril of too many caution cards which Sydney referees use.

Olympic, now deservedly moving to a mid table position, will be joined by free-scoring Sotiris Kayafas at the end of the month, and soon after will have a newcomer from Dundee David McIntosh, in their team on long term contract.

Mooroolbark suspends president

Mooroolbark's board of management has suspended its president, Tom Bailey.

This follows the collapse of the Dave Rigby transfer deal.

Rigby was to have been transferred to South Melbourne Hellas last week.

Mooroolbark manager Malcolm Jones closed the deal with Hellas president Sam Papasavas who handed over a transfer fee of $6000.

Then Bailey informed Papasavas and the ASF that Jones was not authorised to sell Rigby.

Bailey said Jones had resigned verbally from Mooroolbark the previous night.

Jones denied this claim, saying that the club's managing director, Don Wright, had instructed him to proceed with the transfer of Rigby.

Amid the confusion, Papasavas withdrew his $6000 cheque and announced the transfer was off beause he did not want to get involved in Mooroolbark's squabbles.

Mooroolbark's board met a few nights later and suspended Bailey, pending a decision on how to deal with him further.

DRAGAN SLAMS NINE

Dragan Stevanovic scored nine goals in Kew Park Rangers' 13-0 victory over Diamond Creek in the Victorian Junior Cup at the weekend.

J.U.S.T. BEATS HELLAS

Footscray J.U.S.T. came from behind to defeat South Melbourne Hellas 2-1 in their friendly match at Middle Park on Sunday.

Without Graham French, Peter Ollerton, Billy Rogers, Duncan Cummings and Arthur Xanthopoulos, Hellas still managed to take an early lead against J.U.S.T. through Jim Alexiou after good work by Irish recruit Noel Mitten who looked good but whose clearance has not yet arrived.

J.U.S.T. gradually got on top to equalise after a goalmouth scramble when Hellas' Ian Gibson turned in a shot from Charlie Smith.

Joe Palinkas laid on J.U.S.T.'s winner when he cut inside and passed to the unmarked Joe Picioane who put the ball into an empty net.

Alexander steals points from Canberra City

By PAUL MILLS

Wanted: for daylight robbery, Fitzroy Alexander which, in an 89th minute smash-and-grab raid, stole two points from Canberra City in their national league clash at Manuka Oval on Saturday.

Although City began slowly, they completely dominated play for the last hour, but could turn none of their midfield creativity into goals.

A guide to City's dominance is given in the corner count.

City forced their first corner after 35 minutes but ended up taking another 13. They attacked relentlessly but could not find the net. Fitzroy had only three corners.

At times it was a fortuitous boot, stuck out in desperation, that prevented City from shooting — but just as often it was a series of deliberate fouls off the ball, many of them unnoticed by referee Harold Hall from northern NSW.

Alexander, apart from the goal, did very little, except defend tenaciously.

For most of that they can thank Mike Glykokalamos who, with City's Tony Henderson, was the best player on the field.

Socceroo Branko Buljevic, who had Alexander's best scoring chance in the first half, scored the last-gasp winner and the goal was greeted with sighs of relief from the Alexander bench.

It might have all been over after 11 minutes when City sweeper John Brown slipped and allowed Buljevic a clear run at goal. His hard shot looked destined for the net until Haynes dived to push the ball away for a corner.

Virtually from that moment on it was all City. Inspired by new signing Jim Cant from Hearts in midfield, City mounted attack after attack.

On the receiving end of most of it was Jim Lansey who was run ragged by teenagers Moulis and Hogg.

Mike Glykokalamos

Good back-up work by Glykokalamos, Provan and O'Reilly kept Fitzroy out of trouble.

The second half was all one-way traffic. City ran riot and Alexander were tiring visibly.

Gary Cole, brought on at half time to replace George Gillan, could hardly manage a trot midway through the second half and after 63 minutes Campbell came on for Bouzikas.

City had replaced Hogg with David O'Connor at half-time.

Hogg was injured late in the first half in a collision with Alexanders' keeper Blasby.

City's forwards — the Stoddarts, Starke and O'Connor — will remember this match as an "almost" day.

Canberra 0 Alexander 1

The most important "almost" was a penalty which ought to have been awarded after 82 minutes.

Boskov sent in a high cross which went over the advancing Blasby but as O'Connor lined up his shot he was held by Tansey.

The linesman flagged and pointed to the penalty spot but referee Hall overruled him.

Grujicic had a mixed day for City but his work rate again was phenomenal.

By the 70th minute it appeared that Alexanders' midfield trio of Cole, Taylor and McMillan had disappeared, in fact, they were back in defence most of the time, leaving Campbell, Bannon and Buljevic to battle City's defence alone.

They got nowhere — until a minute from time — Taylor sent in the low cross which did most of the damage.

Bannon hit a first-time shot which rebounded from Boskov straight to Buljevic who had most of the goal to shoot into — and he scored.

From another point of view, the match must have been a disappointment for Johnny Warren. He watched his players create dozens of chances and squander most of them.

And in the end, they paid the penalty of wasted chances and a scoreline which will never reflect the one-sidedness of this match.

Branko Buljevic — scored the winning goal.

Yugoslavia beaten by Romania

ZAGREB. — Romania beat Yugoslavia 2-0 in their World Cup qualifying match here.

Halftime: 2-0.

Scorers: Georgescu (38th minute) and Jordanescu (43).

Attendance: 40,000.

Standings in European qualifying Group Eight:

	W	D	L	F	A	P
Romania	2	0	0	3	0	4
Spain	1	0	1	1	1	2
Yugoslavia	0	0	2	0	3	0

Cup goes to Celtic

GLASGOW, — Celtic added the Scottish Cup to the league title when it beat Glasgow rivals Rangers 1-0 at Hampden Park here.

The match was as closely fought as the scoreline suggests. The decisive goal was a 20th minute penalty by full-back Andy Lynch.

Hot weather affects Australian boys team

HONG KONG, — A Hong Kong youth team beat the visiting Australians boy's team 2-0 in a friendly match here.

The visiting team, from Northern New South Wales, was the under 16 Australian national champion last year.

They fought hard to keep the much older and experienced Hong Kong side at bay for the first half.

Hong Kong's Chan Siu Man scored the first goal with a tricky shot from 18 yards just five minutes into the secondhalf.

Ten minutes later, teammate Tsiu Kwok On sent a powerful volley which trapped the Australian goal-keeper Robert Cox and left him sprawling helplessly.

Cox, highly active between the posts, kept his team from a more humiliating defeat by making several brilliant saves.

After the match, Australian team manager David Coote said his boys were affected by the hot weather here and did not play up to their best form.

"But I am satisfied with their performance. They are a bunch of nice boys, well-disciplined. They are feeling good here," he said.

Mackay to Walsall

The decision of Dave Mackay to become Walsall's new manager in succession to Doug Fraser surprised many people in soccer.

His name had been linked with a possible return to Derby County, but Dave said: "I had been out of soccer for three months and the offer from Walsall was the first I had.

Papaiannou here soon

Yet as coach Jim Adam freely admits, luck has been on Alexander's side and luck is a major match-winner. Adam hopes this luck will continue until Greek super star Dimitri Papaiannou arrives about June 16 to strengthen the team.

Alexander has big-match players who will relish the large crows which will be with them to a man on Saturday.

These players are 1974 World Cup star Buljevic Buljevic; sweeper Mike Glykokalamos who played in the Greek First Division; Socceroo Jim Tansey; Rothmans Medallist Pat Bannon and Arthur McMillan, twice best player of Hamilton Academicals in Scotland.

Of course Wests also have their share of stars — including four Socceroos — Peter Wilson, Col Curran, Dave Harding and Peter Stone.

Wilson is equal leader in the Yugoslav Airlines Player of the Year award and according to our experts throughout Australia, he is playing some of the finest soccer of his life.

It would not surprise if Jim Adam assigns a big man — perhaps Gary Cole or George Gillan to play close to Wilson to take advantage of Wilson's total involvement in the play and to counter his creativeness.

Graham Norris, the league's top scorer with six goals, will obviously be marked closely — probably by Jim O'Reilly.

However, Alexander qill find it harder to nullify the Wests midfielers — Harding, Stone and Ken Lindsay — all extremely talented, mobile and disciplined.

Of the Alexander midfielders only Ken Taylor has shown similar mobility. Perhaps Andrew Bozikas could be considered for an attacking midfield role.

After all, Bozikas can play in most positions, having acted as sweeper, midfielder and front runner last season.

McMillan made his debut for Alexander last week against Canberra and showed signs of better things to come.

He will have to be at his best to stop the Wests attack but more important, he will have to get solid support from Jim O'Reilly, Tansey, Bob Provan, Glykokalamos and Pat Bannon.

Alexander crashed to Sydney's Hakoah 1-3 in the opening round and should have learned something from that encounter.

It is that you can't give your opponents freedom to play as they like. The man with the ball must always have pressure on him.

Wests' players have obviously had this drummed into them by coach Mike Laing. They won't allow Alexander to play because for them, it's an away match.

Alexander must also treat it as an away match because of the undoubted class of the opposition.

Likely squads:

ALEXANDER: Peter Blasby, Bob Provan, Jim O'Reilly, Mike Glykokalamos, Arthur McMillan, Jim Tansey, Jim Campbell, Ken Taylor, Pat Bannon, Andrew Bozikas, George Gillan, Branko Buljevic, Gary Cole, Ulysses Kokkinos, Nick Rakovalis, Terry Hawke, Alex Nelson.

WESTS: Terry Eaton, Col Curran, Peter Wilson, Bobby Noble, Steve Perry, Dave Harding, Peter Stone, Ken Lindsay, Bob Fryer, Graham Norris, Clive Eaton, Alan Ainslie, Wally Lachowicz.

Deadly Dennis strikes again!

By BRUCE WADDELL

A.T.C. referee "Deadly Dennis" McDermott was the centre of controversy for the second time this season in the Brisbane City v Brisbane Lions match at Perry Park.

City won 3-1 to stretch its unbeaten run to four weeks.

McDermott, who sent off Canberra City Players Ivan Grujicic and John Stoddart in the opening league match, repeated the performance in Brisbane.

Lions had two players dismissed — striker Alan Hughes. for consecutive fouls on Jim Hermiston and John Lavelle in the 60th minute, and full back Allan Niven.

Niven had been reported by a linesman for an incident in back play involving City's John Coyne.

Five players also received the yellow-card — George Potter, Ron Harland and Geoff Morris (Lions) and City pair Peter Tokesi and Roberto Echeverria.

Both sides also were awarded a penalty each during the fiery, incident packed match.

The first was awarded to City in the 37th minute following a free kick taken by Frank Pimblett near the right hand corner flag.

Several players soared for the cross and the crowd was mystified when McDermott, who appeared to be giving Lions a free kick, then pointed to the penalty spot.

Hermiston took the penalty to give City a 1-0 lead at the end of the first half, during which Lions had much the better of play.

Brisbane C 3 Lions 1.

City went to a 2-0 lead in the 71st minute when Coyne took a free kick just outside the box and Echeverria hammered it brilliantly past Phil Dando.

Lions forged back bravely with 10 men and scored their first goal six minutes later, when Morris despatched a penalty, following a handball decision against Coyne.

City's goal survived some narrow squeaks leading up to five minutes from the end, when Niven was sent off but they made it 3-1 with only three minutes left.

Gaffney's great cross from the left was nodded into the middle of the box by Coyne, and Ian Johnston banged a tremendous volley home.

The match produced all the fireworks expected of a local derby and as a result, non-stop whistle from McDermott ruled out any chance of free-flowing football.

Bobby Moore

MOORE STEPS DOWN

LONDON. — Bobby Moore (pictured), one of the greatest players in the history of soccer and the man who led England to the World Cup in 1966, played his final game before emotion-filled London fans at the weekend.

Moore, 36, has announced his retirement as a player after a career that includes a record 108 appearances for England, and nearly every major honor in the sport.

About 10,000 fans turned out to watch Moore play his last home game for Fulham, the Second Division team he joined two seasons ago, to finish off his days as a player.

Moore appeared to choke up with tears as tributes were delivered in his honor.

His Fulham team-mates and Orient, the opposing team, lined up to make a path for the fair-headed defender's entry onto the field.

England manager Don Revie then presented Moore with gifts from his colleagues and friends, and the 1966 World Cup was on display as a reminder of his accomplishments.

When the season ends this week, Moore will have played 1000 professional games since leaving school in London's cockney East End in 1958. "That will be a sad day for me," he said.

18 injured

LONDON,—More than 100 soccer fans were arrested in Wolverhampton when battles broke out between rival Wolverhampton Wanderers and Chelsea supporters after the English League Second Division match there.

Ambulances took 18 injured supporters to hospital, where they were treated for cuts and bruising.

There were 18 arrests at Bristol, where Manchester United played Bristol City in a First Division game.

Rooney, Richards and Degney save Marconi

By LAURIE SCHWAB

The midfield flair of Ray Richards and Jimmy Rooney and the swashbuckling sorties of left back Paul Degney enabled Marconi to come from behind and beat improving Mooroolbark 3-2 at Middle Park.

The Barkers fielded Dave Rigby, back after a dispute which amounted to a club upheaval, but he lacked match practice and was effective only in patches.

One has to feel sorry for Mooroolbark coach Archie Campbell. He's done extremely well so far and on Saturday he got the very best from most of his players but unfortunately their best wasn't good enough.

The Barkers desperately need at least a centre back and a midfielder.

Interested players are standing by in England but without sponsorship the Barkers don't have the money to fly them over

Meanwhile, Campbell could take some heart from the performances of goalkeeper Paul Wilding, left back Geoff Ontong, midfielder Paul Ontong, forward Joe Tront and, as usual, Alan Pongho.

Pongho played a midfield role this time and scored a good goal but his absence from the defence was obvious as the two centre backs Peter Vaughan and Mike Sinclair struggled to keep their heads above water.

Marconi's central striker Bertie Mariani had a feast against these two. Although he didn't score, he was always in the thick of things, always challenging for balls and often winning them against his beleaguered opponents.

The most interesting duel of the game was the one between Geoff Ontong and Marconi's wonder boy Peter Sharne.

Ontong is just as fast as Sharne, so Campbell instructed him to stick with Sharne no matter where he went. This had the effect of forcing full backs Ontong and Derek Bailey from one flank to the other as Sharne and Raul Carrizo switched positions.

Forgetting Sharne's early goal — which was more the work of Rooney anyway — the winner of the duel was definitely Ontong.

He had Sharne so rattled that even when the speedster did break away, he made mistakes born out of nervousness

Yet I'm taking nothing away from him. He is obviously a highly talented player but like all stars, he will be marked closely from now on.

Marconi's defence was shaky in the first half when too many balls got past John Russell, leaving Ivo Prskalo the task of sweeping up.

Prskalo wasn't good either in this period. He was beaten often as he committed himself to tackles, and his lack of pace became evident.

He used a little more prudence in the second half and looked better as a result.

Les Hucker, Russell's replacement at half time, wasn't much of an improvement. His timing was way off, probably because he'd been out injured for a few weeks.

One of Marconi's stars, Paul Degney (right) beats Mooroolbark's Joe Tront who also played well. Picture by SAM BELFONTE

Jimmy Rooney was Marconi's saviour in the first half, as all else crumbled around him.

He worked tirelessly, winning the ball in defence, offering himself in every situation, coming forward as a one-man attacking force and of course setting up Marconi's first goal.

The little Socceroo weaved his way through the defence near the right post and finally cut the ball square across goal to Sharne who had been running free to the left post. Sharne had an open goal and scored easily in the 20th minute.

This parallel running was Marconi's ploy throughout the game, and it also gave them their winning goal in the 78th minute.

This time it was Degney who cut square to Richards, running free to the other post. Richards unleashed a sizzling shot that was so fast Wilding barely saw it.

In the first half, however, Wilding had stopped a similar move by blocking an even harder shot by Richards.

Both coaches were angry about the two penalties awarded by referee Bob Henderson.

M'bark 2 Marconi 3

The first, in the 21st minute, gave Mooroolbark its equaliser. Henderson ruled that Russell had pushed Mike Clarey and Tront made no mistake from the spot.

The other penalty, in the 57th minute, proved to be Marconi's equaliser (2-2). On his way to the goal line on the left side of the penalty area. Mariani fell in a tackle by Dave Rigby.

Rigby had taken the ball cleanly but Mariani had tripped over Rigby's stretched-out leg.

Gary Byrne took the spot kick and put it in off the crossbar.

Sharne had the ball in the net from a Mariani header as early as the eighth minute but Henderson rightly ruled offside.

A minute later Geoff Ontong dribbled past his man as Marconi's defence advanced, closing up play like a concertina. Ontong passed to Clarey who rounded Prskalo and got into the open to shoot but goalkeeper Alan Maher made a brilliant one-handed save.

Clarey and Gordon McGregor were playing extremely well during this period — Clarey because he was beating men in a confined space at close quarters and McGregor because he was working hard for the first time since he was handed over by St George.

Yet both players nullified this good work by fading right out of the game in the second half.

Both should have worked the way McGregor had before the interval. You simply can't afford to have players standing around up front waiting for a ball. It effectively reduced the number of men in your team.

Mariani was never guilty of this sin. Neither was Sharne. He kept running and trying, even though he had to lug Ontong around on his back.

Carrizo was also more mobile than the Mooroolbark forwards but he had an unhappy match.

In the 15th minute Clarey side-stepped Prskalo again and from 12 metres, shot straight at Maher. What a chance!

Marconi hit back through Rooney who went on a mazey run through the Barkers' defence and cut square to Richards running parallel but Wilding, as we said earlier made a brilliant save.

Paul Ontong, the former flying winger, was becoming more and more prominent in his new midfield role and Joe Tront was cutting up the Marconi defence.

Both players, however were less prominent after the interval. Ontong's relative decline was due largely to the attendtion paid to him by Gary Byrne, assigned by coach Rale Rasic to do something about Ontong's damaging play.

Mistakes by Mooroolbark's central defenders resulted on one goal and almost gave Marconi another.

The first mistake was by Sinclair, who missed with his tackle on Rooney, allowing Rooney to square his ball to Sharne for the opening goal.

Then, after Tront's penalty had levelled the scores, Vaughan slid onto a through pass from Richards but missed, leaving Mariani to latch onto the pass and go to goal but Wilding covered Vaughan's mistake by coming towards Mariani and smothering the shot.

In the 31st minute Tront beat Stuart Robertson easily on the left wing and lobbed the ball into the goal area where Alan Pongho headed Mooroolbark into the lead.

Two minutes after half time Mariani squared the ball through the penalty area to Robertson coming up from defence but Wilding saved well once more.

Wilding came to the rescue again a few minutes later, stopping shots by Byrne and Mariani after a Carrizo corner.

In the 51st minute a promising run by Paul Ontong towards the penalty area was ended by a foul by Richards which earned him the yellow card.

Then Hucker tripped McGregor to stop another solo run.

Degney was becoming more and more prominent with his attacking runs and after Byrne's penalty had levelled the scores, Degney ran from right back to the goal line on the left wing but his attempted cross was intercepted by Wilding.

Byrne and Paul Ontong were both warned by referee Henderson for their continual niggling and shortly afterwards coach Campbell replaced Ontong with Wally Boczjuk.

Mooroolbark had occasional chances even after Richards had given Marconi a 3-2 lead in the 78th minute.

One of these chances fell to Boczjuk but once again Marconi got out of trouble with a foul, this time committed by Robertson.

Sharne got away in a counter-attack, outpacing Geoff Ontong on his way to goal but Vaughan stormed towards him and steamrolled him, giving away a free kick.

Just before the final whistle Sharne sent the ball to Carrizo facing an open goal in the area but the ball was going a bit too fast for Carrizo and he missed after switching feet.

Now Barnes prepares for Hellas

Hakoah 6 Juventus 1

Murray Barnes scored the first hat-trick of the national league season to lead Hakoah to a 6-1 slaughter of Juventus Adelaide at the Sydney Sports Ground.

The Juventus defence crumbled as Hakoah unleashed its power play.

Hakoah had Alan Farley in place of Socceroo goalkeeper Todd Clarke who was injured but as it turned out, Farley had very little to do.

Only Gary Marocchi offered any resistance to the Hakoah midfield and up front, Barnes, Terry Smith, Joe Watson and Hilton Silva had it all their own way.

Silva opened the scoring early when he rammed the ball high into the net from close range after a square pass from Smith.

Juventus was still in with a chance after Marocchi rose high to head home John Perin's free kick but it was only a flash in the pan.

Minutes later Barnes headed down to the foot of Smith who rammed it home from close range and then the partnership worked the other way round as Smith back-headed to Barnes who scored No 3.

The partnership clicked yet again when Smith pushed back to Barnes who made it 4-1 on half time.

Barnes completed his hat-trick at a second attempt after his first had hit goalkeeper Roger Romanowicz.

No 6 came from Bertie Lutton after a good square ball from John Stevenson.

It was Hakoah at its best — Hakoah the soccer machine, as well-oiled as it was when it beat Alexander 3-1 at the start of the season.

You may have missed them . . .

Having no idea of subject matter this week, I thought I would do what all writers do occasionally — plagiarise.

Being a professional between-the-lines reader, here are my quotes by soccer greats that you might have missed in ordinary reading.

Of course they are genuine — Would I have you on?

"An apple a day keeps the doctor away, but an APPLE a day keeps the Hellas club rooms away," Sam Papasavas.

On winning last year's Soccer Press Association's player of the year award — one of Jim Mackay's soccer boots:

"Jesus this is a hard game, you have to win two years in a row to get a decent pair of boots," Arthur Xanthopoulos.

"Are we still on camera? This smile is killing me," Jim Barker on television.

"Are we still on camera? These ratings are killing us," Jeff Thomas on the same programme.

"For the record, I've been banned from Essendon Lions," Billy Vojtek after Red Stars' tour.

"Well, you can't win them all," Jim Shoulder after Australia's 11 straight games without victory.

"It's not a matter of 7 million marks that takes me to New York Cosmos, it's a matter of 2.7 million dollars which takes me to Cosmos." Frank Beckenbauer.

"I quit." Manfred Schaefer.

"I don't quit," Manfred Schaefer.

"Is anyone for sale?" Sam Papasavas.

"So that's the national coach, I thought he worked here." Manny Poulakakis.

"I have been told by the coach that I'm too slow, so where do I stand?" Frank Micic.

"The trouble with soccer in this country is that it's not football." Ron Barassi.

"I don't suppose you can blame jet-lag on a bus, hey?" Jim Shoulder after the Socceroos played Israel at the Sydney Sports Ground.

"Well that's the last time I go into the 'Sun' to get more coverage without a hat." George Wallace after begging for the soccer cause at a Melbourne daily.

"Ouch!" Cedo Cirkovic after being hit in the eye by a drunk spectator.

And who can forget that immortal phrase from Peter Georgiou in Soccer Action.

KNUT WERNER

Note to the English

SIR — To all you Britishers living in the Eastern Suburbs area: As you know, soccer writer Freddie Villiers hasn't actually been jumping up and down with joy over the new Philips top soccer league, but he complimented Mooroolbark on a fine performance on Saturday when they went down fighting to a very strong Marconi side. The stands were almost deserted for mainly three reasons:

1. Middle Park is around $2.50 train fare and about 2 gallons of petrol from the Mooroolbark area.

2. It is usually on T.V. so people just can't be bothered and finally.

3. Some have to work.

But on Sunday, May 22 (yes! the day after the F.A. Cup Final). Mooroolbark will play Eastern Suburbs Hakoah from Sydney at Wembley Park on Canterbury Road, Box Hill. Well, here's a great opportunity to air yourselves and to help Mooroolbark's financial position. I'm sure the Mooroolbark players will play their hearts out for you. Then, if you like the team and Mooroolbark gets a ground around the area, you will gladly stop whinging about the standard of Australian soccer. After all, Mooroolbark is a British Club.

FAITHFUL BARKERS SUPPORTER, Bayswater.

A two horse race in Div.1

After only four rounds, the First Division championship is beginning to look like a two-horse race, the protagonists being Western Suburbs and Albion Rovers.

Both won on Saturday, but this week Albion could sneak a point clear for the Rovers should penetrate the leaky Keilor City defeence more than once, especially at home, whilst Western Suburbs have no easy task at Ardeer. Likely winners in Capitals:

MELBOURNE V Keilor, St Albans V DANDENONG C, Springvale V Croydon C, Ardeer v Western Suburbs, WAVERLEY C V Box Hill, ALBION ROVERS V Keilor City.

If Division One looks like a two-horse race, division two is beginning to look like a walkover.

This week Doveton travel to Ferntree Gully and should win again, whilst Mooroolbark visit Footscray, to play a team of unknown potential.

Footscray's defence could hold out there, it's a striker they need most.

Forecast: Footscray V Mooroolbark, BRIGHTON V Moreland, ELTHAM V South Melbourne, FITZROY V Bell Park, COLLINGWOOD C V Richmond, Ferntree Gully V DOVETON.

In Division Three, Knox City look to have a good chance of consolidating their leadership this week with a home game against lowly Park Rangers, whilst Chelsea have a difficult game at Broadmeadows. Coburg should beat Prahran City, and Port Melbourne will beat Essendon City.

COBURG V Prahran, Moorabbin V Heidelberg, Broadmeadows C V Chelsea, KNOX CITY V Park Rangers, PORT MELBOURNE V Essendon City, Ringwood U V YALLOURN.

And in division four, Morwell Falcons found the winning touch and could win again this week against Rosebud's unsteady defence.

Doncaster Rovers have a hard game at Clayton, but if they can win they will be sitting pretty, as Sandringham have a difficult task at Corio.

MORWELL FALCONS V Rosebud, MONASH U V Caulfield C, Uni of Melbourne V Ballarat, Corio V Sandringham, MORNINGTON V South Yarra, Clayton V DONCASTER R.

Win harder than score suggests

PORT MELBOURNE 1 (Stergiou 47) KNOX CITY 4 (Weston 40.90 Waller 70. Dunning 84)

PORT MELBOURNE: Karamouzis 6, Triantafilidis 6, Paganis 5, Turikos 7, Tagianos 6, Lekkas 6, Totis 5, Stergiou 7, Liakopoulos 6, Svengos 7, Lazaridis 6.

KNOX CITY: DeMan 6, Shackleton 6, Bedford 9, Atkins 6, Milne 5 (sub Dunning 40.6) Flynn 5, Flood 6, Howarth 7, Butt 5 (sub 85 Davies), Weston 7, Waller 6.

Knox City in the end made light work of fellow promotion candidate Port Melbourne on Saturday, but it wasn't as easy as the final score might suggest.

Victorian Metro League with LES SHORROCK

Murphy Reserve, Port Melbourne has an almost perfect playing surface, and this, coupled with the fact that both these sides like to play Soccer made for a very enjoyable game.

Knox soon established an iron grip on the midfield and at the back ex-Hellas stalwart Johnny Bedford was in absolutely dominating form.

But for all their midfield superiority in the first half, Knox went in with only one goal to show for their efforts and that was nullified right on the whistle by a good effort from Lou Stergiou.

The reason for this apparent paradox was Port Melbourne's effective offside trap, which caught Knox' front runners time and again. In fact, I counted fifteen such transgressions in the first half-hour.

It took Knox 40 minutes to crack the well organised Port defence and then Mark Weston pounced on a ball that came loose in the box after a quick throw-in and he rifled past young Karamouzis with great glee.

In comparison to Knox', Port's fron runners Stergiou and Liakopoulos has seen little of the ball, but in the 47th minute of the first half, Lou Stergiou made no mistake from close in and gave Leo de Man no chance.

At this stage, a draw looked on the cards and even the most fervent Knox supporter could hardly have been forecasting a win by a three goal margin.

Port began the second half with a slight breeze behind them, and began to have a lot more of the game.

Knox, I feel were a little handicapped by the injury to Clive Milne, which saw him replaced by Phili Dunning. Early in this half they had the ball in the net, but the goal was disallowed for . . . you've guessed it, offside.

At the 70 minute mark I was beginning to think in terms of a draw, but a good individual effort by Knox right back Derek Shackleton changed all that.

He set off down the right, beat three men, lost the ball, worried his opponent until he got it back and then slung over a ball that seemed at first too near the goalkeeper to be dangerous, but Colin Waller beat the keeper to it and squeezed the ball through a two foot gap.

Knox were not to be denied then, although Stergiou missed a golden opportunity from close range, and they scored a third when Waller's hard shot bounced back off a defender and Phil Dunning coming up at full speed, rammed the ball back into the net.

Right on time Knox added a fourth, and it was a peach.

Johnny Bedford picked up a ball in the box slipped a long pass to Johnny Howarth, who drew a man and then sent substitute Dave Davis away on the right.

Mark Weston was waiting for this perfect cross and when it came he shot it home with the minimum of fuss.

First Division

KEILOR CITY 2 v BOX HILL 1

Scores: Keilor - Altheim (Penalty) 28th min; Matina 49th min. Box Hill - Smale 65th min.

KEILOR - Schirripa; Mladenovski, Altheim, Pasiczny, Korosinis; Van Leeuwen, Presilski, De Gabrille; Dorward (Tasevki), Leaves, Matina.

Box Hill - Morgan; Benton; Corke; Brown; Hall; Lapish (Owen); Waaldvk; McLeod; Berandini; Tuffield, Smale (Rivaro).

Keilor took the initiative from the kick-off, going into the lead with a penalty in the 28th min. Box Hill was woeful — Lapish gave away the second goal through foolish play and abused the coach when substituted shortly after. Keilor fought hard and showed a desire to win while Box Hill were lacklustre.

Best : Keilor City — Mladenovski, Presilski, Leaves. Box Hill — Hall, Corke.

Keilor signed Lenny van Leevwen from Polonia last Friday, the day before the game.

CROYDON 1 — ST ALBANS 1

Scorers: St Albans 23 min. Croydon M. Plunket 43 min.

Croydon — R. Lawton; M. Kupinic, I. Kelly, H. Ward; C. Ogden, J. Blacker, C. Murphy, C. Kelly, M. Lynn, M. Plunkett, G. Gerrisu.

Croydon Best — R. Lawton, M. Lynn. J. Blacker, R. Ward.

Second Divison

DOVETON 8 MOOROOLBARK 1

DOVETON: Riess, Thurlow, Wilson, Garland, Kingsley, Murray, Shanks, Roderick, McMinimee, Hill, O'Halloran.

Subs. Gaw, Smith, Taylor.

MOOROOLBARK: Taylor, Ryce, Shuttleworth, Waterworth, Ellis, Black, Irwin, Rogerson, McConville, Pongho, House. Subs. Priest-Hill missed a golden chance for Doveton when he blasted over the bar with only the keeper to beat.

After 40 minutes a Doveton defender misjudged a bouncing ball and PONGHO was there to put the BARKERS one goal up.

One minute later Kingsley netted for Doveton from a corner taken by HILL.

Within 45 seconds of the second half Doveton scored through Sam Murray after good play by Roderick.

Adding to the Barker's despair, Hill added a third goal two minutes later through Shanks.

Ian Shanks collected a ball inside the Doveton half and beat three Mooroolbark defenders, passed to O'Halloran, who returned to Shanks and again Shanks took on a defender before slipping past Taylor for Doveton's fourth goal.

Four goals in eight minutes had the Barkers wondering what had happened to them.

Riess brought off a brilliant save at this stage to stop Pongho from scoring for Mooroolbark.

At the 74 minute Doveton subbed O'Halloran with Gaw who immediately took a corner which left Murray with the easiest of chances to head Doveton's fifth goal.

Hill received a ball on the right and from an acute angle scored No. 6.

Three minutes later the same player completed his hat trick for goal No. 7.

With only a minute to go Murray scored goal No. 8 to complete his hat trick.

Best for Doveton: Kingsley, Shanks, Murray.

Best for Mooroolbark: Ellis, Irwin, Taylor.

FERNTREE GULLY 0 COLLINGWOOD CITY 2

Scorers: Nicolaidis 27 mins. Feretis 62 mins.

FTG: Easton, Johnson, O'Hare, Teeuw, Robinson, Clarke, Vanderhoek, Wilson, Hampson, Day, Rubens, Sinclair and Zeegers.

COLLINGWOOD: Scouras, Vasilogiannakapoulos, Koutrovelis, Peppas, Tsiapos, Tyrikos, Sakinidis, Gamurellis, Feretis, Kaknis, Nicolaidis, Koullacas, Vamoulidis, (GK) Seriotis.

Collingwood had not scored a goal in this season's league campaign until the 27th minute when Nicolaidis chased a ball by Sahinidis put through Gully's backline which was too far upfield and square.

The same thing happened when at 62 minutes Feretis broke away, taking advantage of another glaring Gully defensive error.

Gully worked hard and attacked constantly from the kick-off with two quick chances in the first three minutes when Wilson lifted a shot over the bar and then Hampson went through and shot wide.

Goal chances galore went astray for the home side in the "over or wide or direct at goalie" fashion.

They missed star striker Sammy Jordan who was struck down with a savage kick in last week's Fitzroy game and will not be able to play again.

It must also be said for Gully that defenders Bens, Sjo and Peter Vanderhoek are on the sidelines too but Collingwood earned their win on the day.

Best players were Gully's keeper Easton, Collingwood's Angelo Feretis (best on ground) and Tony Koutrovelis.

According to a Ferntree Gully official they are getting bigger attendances at their home matches and he attributes this to the good publicity recently in the local press.

This is also reflected in the record number of junior registrations which are still coming in.

BELL PARK 1 v ELTHAM 1

Scorers: Ortiz (Bell Park) Own Goal 25 mins. Ortiz (Bell Park) 89 mins.

BELL PARK: Kurtovic, King, Huddart, Talef, Hay, Ortiz, Witecki, Munoz, Brown, Bimovski, Cuell, Nestorovski, Kovacev.

ELTHAM: Findlay, Haynes, Radojcic, Kirkwood, Cirka, Cochrane, Vivarinni, Rattray, Curcija, Gooney, Spaniak, Kristic, Dresler.

Eltham Best: Radojcic, Cirka, Spaniak, Findlay.

Brighton first goal: Ball won by Nikolic was passed to Harrison whose neat cross was headed home by Avent 2nd Goal — High lob from McCaig beat keeper and ended up in net. 5th. Melb. goal — Penalty for handball by McDonald who saved on line. First penalty saved by keeper Bryden. Referee had kick retaken because keeper

Third Division

RINGWOOD UTD 2 CHELSEA 6

Chelsea dominated the first half and forced Ringwood to defend most of the time.

Within 10 minutes Chelsea deservedly went to a 2-nil lead but this was reduced just before half time when John Dalton scored for Ringwood.

After half time, Ringwood forced Chelsea on the defensive for long periods and Terry Casey equalised with a curling shot midway through this half.

Ringwood continued to attack and were unlucky not to take the lead on several occasions.

With less than 10 minutes to go Chelsea scored a third goal from a breakaway and this goal seem to demoralise the Ringwood team who conceded a further 3 goals in the last four minutes of the game.

Best for Ringwood: Jim Bumskead, Ian Johnstone, Alf Bakker.

HEIDELBERG 1 COBURG 2

SCORERS- COBURG 43 mins. Christopoulos HEID'G 53 min. Penalty D. Clark. Coburg 80 min. Wilmot.

HEID'G: Micaneff, Cameron, Parker, Glennie, Fox, Clark, Reed, Hopes, Mihailidis, McAuliffe, Watson. Subs: Cameron, McQuilken. COBURG: Cummins, Frampton, McGuiness, Timpano, Bolton, Christopoulos, Yearsley, Tsolakkis, Malcolm, Dawson, Wilmot. Subs: Culle, Jones.

Heid'g Best: Hopes (Until half time) Glennie, Parker. Coburg Best: Frampton, Wilmot.

ESSENDON CITY 1 (Berni) PRAHRAN CITY 1

ESSENDON: Poropat, Ozmal, Capponi, Vesnaver, F. Tribuzio, Berni, Dilizza, Ross, Marcato, Banda, Tribuzio, Cappolino, Galati.

Essendon City proved to be a much improved team from last week. Both teams were looking for a good win. Prahran started off in fine form by scoring in the first minute. This came about when Prahran's right winger easily penetrated Essendon defence where he then cut the ball back to the centre forward and he had an open shot for goal, Essendon keeper Porapat was out of reach of the ball, and a goal was the result.

As the game continued Prahan's defence proved too strong and the ball was constantly going back and forth, with Essendon's keeper always on his toes.

At the 30 minute mark of the first half, Prahran's No.6 was given a warning card and a free direct kick was awarded to Essendon. Berni took it and with a beautiful straight hard shot, through Prahran's wall, scored a goal.

The second half began with Essendon showing a little more strength as they were able to penetrate Prahran's defence and shoot for goals, but this was to no avail as the shots were not reaching the net. In the last minute Prahran was awarded a direct free kick and their captain took it, but to Essendon's luck the ball hit the cross bar and the game ended 1—1.

This effort was equalized earlier by Essendon during the game when a header from Tribuzio hit the cross bar and then was cleared.

Best Players for Essendon City. Vesnaver for his fighting spirit. Dilizza for his egerness to get the ball to goal.

Poropat (keeper) for a very courageous effort.

PARK RANGERS (Clemie) 1 BROADMEADOWS CITY 2

Vella. O'Neil.

Park Rangers: Beegan, Semini, Tierney, Ashton, McCormack, Hume, (White), Ciemie, Kokoras, L. Tierney, Michaelopoulos, Visic.

Broadmeadows: Pace, Gatt, R. Anderson (Diberadino), Deguara, Moonie, B. Alderson, J. O'Neill, Belli, T. Sciciuna, Scinto, Vella.

Best Players: Michaelopoulos, Gemie (Pk Rangers) Pace, Barry Alderson, Tony Sciciuna (Broady).

DIVISION ONE

FAWKNER 3 v WERRIBEE 4.

FAWKNER: Spataro, Frolla, Caruso, Rossetto, Vecchiatto, Budicin, Bazzano, Sabadussi, Baravelli, Schipano, Epifano.

WERRIBEE: Amos, Costello, Parker, Reardon, J. Collins, Marshall, Paisley, Angysay, McNeil, Paley, Mantello.

Both teams started cautiously, until a well placed 30 metre lob by Marshall caught Fawkner goalie Spataro off his line and found the net.

Werribee went further ahead through Mantello after Fawkner failed to clear a seemingly innocent cross.

dangerous but replacement goalie, Soranl was in fine form and saved Fawkner on many occasions.

Ironically it was Soranl who gave away a penalty when he pushed McNell to the ground as he was about to clear from goal.

To Fawkner's credit, Bazzano equalised from Vecchiatto's long throw in, but Werribee managed to force another penalty in the dying minutes of the game.

Collins, took both penalties effectively and gave the goalie no chance.

LANGWARRIN 0 GREENSBOROUGH 2

SCORERS. Greensborough - K. Beard 30 mins, R. Koenen 70th min.

LANGWARRIN — Butcher, Skelly, Lesslie, Jasa, King, Burnett, Coredy, Flynn, Hewman, Fitzmorris, Casteneda.

GREENSBOROUGH — Payne, Norris, Koenen, Smith, H. Ellis, Robinson, Bass, Stafford, McGilp, C. Ellis, Beard (Sub. Beer 70th min.)

The Boro dominated play from the start and should have been two goals up. However the pressure payed off.

Robinson left two defenders in his wake and laid the ball off for Beard to tap into the net.

Langwarrin lifted their game but the Boro's defence was watertight.

A great save by Payne saved the day for the away team.

Ellis was having a great game for the Boro.

The second half saw the Boro repeat their first half performance.

McGilp's corners were causing the home team problems it was only a matter of time before a goal would be scored.

From a McGilp corner Koenen headed in a great goal to sew the game up for Boro.

Had the Boro taken their time they could have added to their goal tally. Langwarrin missed a penalty in the last 10 minutes.

Best Players: Langwarrin: Burnett, King, Gasteneda.

Greensborough: C. Ellis, H. Robinson, B. Bass, H. Smith.

G. Markovski scored after 10 mins. and was always dangerous when in possession. N. Tungevs, T. Skubevski and G. Vasilevski had a stranglehold on the Pines forwards.

C. Altona went further, when awarded a penalty 60th min. N. Tungevski converting. G. Malcolm reduced the leeway in 68th min. M. Gesovski came on as substitute for M. Serovki and scored C. Altona's 3rd goal. P. Thompson came on for G. Watson and the Pines forward line got a new lease of life, but the C. Altona defence held out.

Best Players: C. ALTONA: T. Skubevski, C. Vasilevski, G. Markovski. PINES: D. Bennet, B. Pauline, G. Malcolm.

DIVISION TWO

NORTH DANDENONG 4 CARLTON 3

SCORERS: NTH DANDENONG: K. Jackson-2 (9&32), W. Milne-2 (55&76) Grnia-1(44) CARLTON: Stoilovic-2(4&26).

NTH. DANDE: Carruth, Papadopoulos, Keyaerts, Gilligan, Martin. Maley, Milne, Kerr, Fox, Jackson, Vanette, Reid.

CARLTON: Sales, Krnic, Nikolic, Dordevic, Dodig, Grnia, Bieloarlic, Milinov, Stoilovic, Velickovic, Bucevac.

A determined Carlton took the game right up to the league leaders and controlled the midfield in the early stages. The ever dangerous Carlton striker Stoilovic caused the home team a lot of trouble with his clever ball control and ability to beat a defender. Carlton took the lead three times in the first half, but North stuck to their task and twice equalised. H.T. 2-3.

The second half was a complete reversal as North took control, with attack after attack on the Carlton goal. Carlton defended desperately, twice clearing the ball off the line with the goalkeeper beaten, but North would not be denied, scoring two goals without reply, to run out worthy winners 4-3.

PEGASUS OVER MELBOURNE

Plenty of goals again this week in the I.S.L.V. Three clubs scored 8; Linatex, McColl Dynamo 'B' and Parory Florinis, helping to boost the average to almost 5 a game. There were surprises in most divisions but perhaps the biggest was Quaker-LUV's 1-0 win over Black Douglas Cup Giant Killers R.A.A.F. Point Cook.

By RON DARLINGTON

Pegasus have taken a firm hold at the top of Division 1 after defeating Repco Richmond 2-1 to go a point clear of Melbourne Meats. Stephan Fus put Pegasus ahead with his fourth goal in four outings but Repco, despite their lowly position, made them fight all the way in a very keenly contested game.

In the match of the division two goals within a minute by Vilim Borovnjak midway through the second half for Melbourne Meats cancelled a first half R.A.C.V. goal by Hildebrand to give them both points. R.A.C.V. dominated the first half and should have had the game sewn up but they allowed the Meatmen to get back into the game and paid the penalty.

McColl Dynamo 'A' played most of the game with 10 men and failed to get both points due to Ricardo Pereira completing a good hat-trick in the 89th minute. Players who get their marching orders let not only themselves down but their team mates also. With a full team, McColl could have won this match.

Kodak United showed improved form against Ford Falcons but still went down 1-3. An injury to their keeper and a missed penalty didn't help their cause but honest endeavour made it into a fairly close game.

The airlines are finding it much harder in Division 2 than they did in 3 or 4. One point between them from 6 games is not championship form. Ansett went down 0-2 to A.C.I. Box Hill and T.A.A. 0-1 to A.N.Z. Bank 'A' who gave Dave Dingle his first run in goal, having kept a clean sheet he could be there again next week.

Middle Park V.R.I.'A' after two straight wins were sunk 7 -1 at home by Public Works 'A', Gary Kyriacou scoring 4 of them. This win puts the Workers on top by goal average over Sperry Vickers who dropped a point at Philip Morris. They might have dropped both of them if the Morrismen had converted a penalty.

Colyer Watson are steam rolling ahead in Division 3. Six points collected and yet to concede a goal is championship form in anyone's language. Leyland were the latest team to feel their pressure but put up a strong fight before going down 0-2.

Plenty of goals at Linatex this week. They scored eight themselves, Richard Prentice and Jim Westwell getting hat-tricks, but let in four from Cester United.

McColl Dynamo 'B' beat Ringwood Lanes 8-0, George Selemidis scoring a hat-trick, to make their tally 19 in three outings, but they are not top of their division because Keeley United also made it three in a row against Tessa Town but have yet to concede a goal.

Another player to score 4 was Colin Hampton of the Age in their 5-2 win over Public Works 'B'.

Travellers Melbourne are two points clear at the top of Divison 4 North after their 4-1 win over Olympic Tyre. In second place, are A.R. Split who took both points in their match against A.H.D. they were without their regular keeper and just managed to keep their head in front to win 3-2.

K.S.C. United have three points and a game in hand after beating A.G.C.F. 5-1, the same score that Repco Cooldrive beat A.N.Z. Bank 'B'.

Gascer City, after losing 10-1 in the cup, put the boot on the other foot and trounced Aquila Steel 7-0, Nick Tanner scoring 4.

Parory Florinis went one better with 8-0 against Middle Park V.R.I. 'B' Peter Deliopolous also scoring 4.

R.A.A.F. Point Cook were brought to earth with a bump after the euphoria of the cup the previous week going down 0-1 to Quaker LUV.

Siemens Bees haven't won a point yet but it shouldn't be long before they do, stirling defence and another good display by Wilhelm Rzepka in goal limited C.I.G. to a 2 goal margin.

The I.S.L.V.'s own radio programme can be heard again this Thursday and every Thursday at 8.15 pm on 3ZZ Access Radio.

We are fortunate this week to be able to add our little bit to the second anniversary celebrations of 3ZZ which makes a very valuable contribution to community life, more strength to their elbow.

Our special guest is Jimmy Shoulder who is making a welcome return to the programme and talks about the National teams past performances and future prospects.

Keely United require a team coach, so if you know of anyone with suitable experience, contact Arthur Wild on — 792 2036 (after hours).

This looks like an opportunity for an experienced player to take up coaching, there are quite a few players about who have played with State League or higher grade teams who could take up this challenge so why not give it a go.

BOSCH are anxious to make a quick return to Division 1 and are looking for a goal-keeper to strengthen their team. If you can assist of know of someone that Bosch could approach to join them, contact Max Schweighofer on

Georgie needs finishing punch

Victorian State League round-up by LES SHORROCK.

George Cross 2 (Maitland 6, Wilkinson 19).
Ringwood City 1 (Scott 0).

George Cross: Kastner 7, McConville 6, Cutajar 6, Webb 6, Maitland 7, Wilkinson 6, Ebini 7, Lawler 6, Reed 6, Deeming 4, Cullen 6.

Ringwood City: Wroe 6, Adams 6, Verniers 5, O'Callaghan 7, Plumb 5 (Sub 30, Curulli 5), Jones 6, Williamson 6, De Bruyckere 6, Scott 7, Schott 6, Kent 6.

George Cross took over leadership of the State League by defeating Ringwood City at Olympic Park on Sunday, but they were far from convincing in doing it.

Georgie's finishing left a great deal to be desired and this aspect of their win was highlighted by the fact that their two goals were scored by centre-back Maitland and mid-fielder Wilkinson.

In Georgie's four victories to date, only Ken Reed of the front runners has scored and the other goals have come from Norm Maitland, Billy Wilkinson and a penalty from Paul Murphy.

In fairness to Georgie, it must be pointed out that both Kevin Kelly and Paul Murphy were unavailable last week through injury, but nevertheless many chances went begging against Ringwood, especially in the first half.

Ringwood, for their part can gain some satisfaction from at least their second half performance, and no doubt the injury to Richard Plumb, who was taken to Prince Henry's with concussion after only 30 minutes drastically disruped the defence.

Ringwood is an enigma probably best described as do-it-yourself. Whilst there are several skilful players in the side, there seems to be no co-ordination and teamwork is lacking.

Their attitude was best summed up by the exasperated defender who yelled 'come on, lads, we're playing in ones and twos', and that's exactly how it looked.

But there is hope for them, especially as they have the best new striker we have seen in Melbourne for years.

Andy Scott will probably rue the day he scored four in one match, for now everyone expects him to repeat the feat every week.

On Sunday, he came up against one of Victoria's most experienced centre-backs, rugged Norm Maitland.

Maitland had an iron grip on Scott in the first half, but Scott got away from him a few times in the second term and he cracked in one goal and went very close only five minutes later.

John O'Callaghan played his best game for a long time and he went close to snatching a point for Ringwood in the dying minutes when his close range header from Schott's cross went straight into Kastner's arms.

George Cass started off in whirlwind fashion and overran the Ringwood defence in the opening minutes, so it was no surprise when they took the lead through a headed goal from Maitland in six minutes, after forcing a series of corners.

Ringwood looked very shaky then and another Georgie goal would not have been a surprise.

Ringwood, aided by George's appalling finishing hung on until Billy Wilkinson showed the forwards the way by cracking in a hard volley at the 19-minute mark.

Just previously, Robert Cullen had rounded Keith Adams and forced Mick Wroe to palm the ball away full stretch, but Peter Ebini, with the goal at his mercy, blasted wide.

Maybe Georgie felt it was going to be easy, but whatever the reason, it became very casual as the game wore on.

Ringwood started to look dangerous late in the second half, with both Phil Williamson and Chris Kent putting in telling runs.

Altona 1 (Little 83) Juventus 0.

Altona City. Van der Poel, Copley, Gramsbergen, Murray, Lord, Ackers, Davidson, Brown, Ignatides, Taylor (sub Little), Watters.

Juventus. Graham, Sabadini, Tarquinio, Walker, Della Rocca, Bannon, Watkins, Sabadussi, Mainenti (Sanipoli), Hotson, Pfisterer (sub Armstrong).

Altona City maintained its good League form with two points at the expense of Juventus.

Juventus were weakened by injuries to Armstrong and Di Marchi and newly arrived John Hotson from Morton had to play despite illness.

There was a good crowd of about 1400 and most Altona supporters considered it the best game seen at Altona, but the ground, once Altona's pride and joy, suffered badly during the Easter floods and is still in a bad state.

Defences dominated all day, with Bob Gramsbergen and Hans van der Poel outstanding for Altona, and it was only seven minutes from the end that Nat Little, substituting for Bob Taylor, scored the all important goal.

Frankston City 0, Hakoah 0.

Frankston: Petersen, Gillespie, Campbell, Adams, Irvine, Webster, (sub Murray), Buchanan, Savage, Westerveld (sub Spears) Dall, Eadie.

Hakoah: O'Hara, Rainey, Valli, Jordanou, Baker, Gadsby, Groenwald (sub De Placido), McNeil, Black, Edmondson, Blair.

As the score indicates, this was a battle of defences. Hakoah visited the joint League leaders for their first League game ever at Frankston and were very happy to come away with a point.

Hakoah's strong point is its defence and this was most evident on Sunday, with David Baker in Rothman Medal form and the ebullient Mike O'Hara in his best 'they shall not pass' mood.

Frankston got a little frustrated with the refereeing in the first half and coach John Pryde was reported after a heated exchange at the interval.

Frankston exerted a lot of pressure in the last twenty minutes without however, looking like scoring.

The encounter was not without its incidents and referee Tudor Jenkins found it necessary to book six players besides John Pryde.

It could be that someone lost some teeth too, as Frankston forward Mark Dall has a set of teeth-marks in his shoulder.

Green Gully 1 (Segi 60), Sunshine City 1 (Cumming 75).

Green Gully. Denys, P. Banagan, J. Thompson, Berens, Donaldson, Miller, McGill, T. Banagan, Segi, Patton, Hamill (sub L. Thompson).

Sunshine City. Johnson, Gilmour, Howe, Mussel, Dixey, Hewson (sub Laing), McCarthy, McRobert, Cumming, Piotrowski (sub Lewis), Pocock.

Green Gully, the State League's big spenders were at it again last week, this time they snapped up Lou Denys, from St Albans and John Patton from Slavia.

It's good to see Lou Denys get his chance in State League at last, for a long time he has been consistently good for St. Albans and he probably did more than anyone to keep that club in the First Division.

On the other hand, Sunshine badly needs an injection of new players to halt the present slide. This time last year, the club was riding high at the top of the table and with the departure of the big four into the National League could reasonably have been expected to be a big force this year.

The two defences dominated Sunday's game until the deadlock was broken at the 60 minute mark.

Green Gully took a free kick quickly, catching the Sunshine defence napping and Segi was able to run in and score.

Sunshine's equalizer came when Jim McRobert was brought down in the box by Berens, and Tommy Cumming converted the penalty.

Slavia 4 (Gilder 10, Pye 20, Ripley 35, Moore 70), Polonia 1 (Koter 75).

Slavia. Clarke, Thompson, Owens, Westley, Symington, Train, Moore, Pye, Ripley, Gilder, Ferraro.

Polonia. Ostrowski, Dimitriou, Woite, Koter, A Czapnik, P. Czapnik, Nierobisz, Horfiniak, Esposito, S. Klain, Altieri.

Prahran Slavia will soon lose the tag of being defensive if they keep on scoring at this rate.

Last season Slavia's goal tally was 18 for the whole League season. This season, after only four games, it is 11.

Carl Gilder opened the scoring when he beat two men before planting the ball past Ostrowski and David Pye made it 2-0 at the twenty minute mark with a vicious volley. Dave Ripley then dribbled round two defenders and the goalkeeper before walking the ball into the net and Slavia went in three up at half-time.

In the second half, Steve Moore scored from 25 yards before Tom Koter reduced the leeway with a direct free-kick.

What was most pleasing to Slavia coach Ken Kontra was that the win was achieved without injured John Cain and John Habbin.

The loss leaves Polonia firmly planted at the bottom of the League ladder. There is every indication that the club will become the State League chopping block unless there is some end result from all the running that the Polonia players seem to put in.

Their defence is square and wide open as 12 goals against testifies. And four goals in four games shows the lack of punch up front.

COACH QUITS

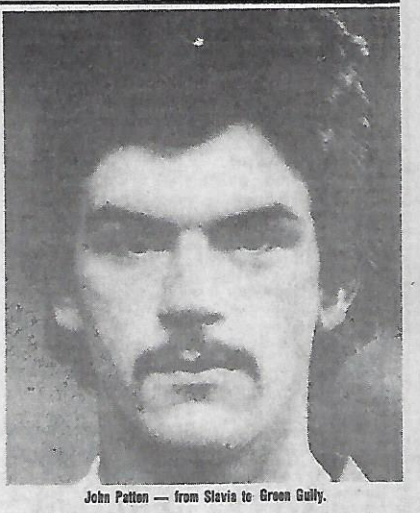
John Grimsey

Polonia coach John Grimsey quit on Monday after a stormy interview with the Polonia committee.

The committee had just informed him that he would no longer be responsible for team selection and Grimsey said he wouldn't accept the edict.

'The committee blames me and the captain, Andy Czapnik for the poor results, but the committee must take some blame too', he said to me. "For instance, there was no strip available for the team on Sunday and the first team had to wear the reserves' shirts when they had finished playing in them. Players are needed too. How can I turn out a team to compete with top State League sides when I can only pick from Metro First Division discards" he added bitterly.

John says he is open to offers from other clubs and can be contacted on 480 2217 (bus) or 465 9252 (home).



John Patten — from Slavia to Green Gully.

Armstrong out about 5 weeks

This week's round has several interesting clashes.

Pride of place (no pun intended), would go to the game between Juventus and Frankston City.

Frankston have made a flying start, with three wins and a draw so far. The goals column testifies to its cast-iron defence.

On the other han, only six goals have come Frankston's way and four of those were scored against Polonia.

Juventus has problems with unfit players. Jim Armstrong will be out for about five weeks because of a broken fibula, but Bobby McLachlan has high hopes that newcomer John Hotson will have recovered.

A low-scoring draw could be on the cards at Olympic Park.

Leaders George Cross visit Preston and will have their hands full.

Preston are recovering from a bad start and have yet to win a game, but the arrival of Billy McClyment from Motherwell should add more punch to the attack and there isn't much wrong with the defence.

Georgie has problems with injuries too. They have Paul Murphy and Kevin Kelly out and Derek Barna is still overseas, so the indications are that Preston will win this one.

Polonia is not only struggling on the field, it has no coach now and an improving Lions should have no difficulty in picking up two points.

Butch Kokoska, John Kennedy and Howard Andrews will stiffen up the Lions defence and hearten the attack.

Two newly promoted sides, Altona City and Green Gully meet at Kim Reserve and Altona will find the Gully much improved, with no fewer than seven new players since the Ampol Cup.

Altona are still unbeaten and this game shapes up as a banker draw.

Sunshine City lost at Ringwood last year, but they should win this time, although they will need to watch Ringwood's new striker, Andy Scott.

The Hakoah versus Slavia match at Middle Park seems an intriguing top four clash between a cast iron defence and a high-scoring attack.

Likely winners in capitals. Frankston C. V Juventus, PRESTON v George Cross; Polonia v LIONS, Altona C v Green Gully; Ringwood C v SUNSHINE C: Hakoah V SLAVIA.

NEW BUYS IN GREAT DEBUT

By LAURIE SCHWAB

ESSENDON LIONS 0 PRESTON MAKEDONIA 0.

ESSENDON: Kennedy 6; Bilaver 6, Kokaska 7, Gunn 7, G. Train 6; Wallace 6, Culina 7, Andrews 6; Kuzmanov 5, (Krajina 63rd), Krncevic 6, Murphy 6.

MAKEDONIA: Laumets 7; Trajkovski 6, Brewerton 7, Campbell 6, Petrovski 6; Bernard 6, (Petrov 64th), Beech 6; Gelevski 6, McClymont 7, McQuade 6, (Fox 68th.), Flaherty 6.

Essendon and Makedonia made good acquisitions last week in signing Steve Kokoska and Billy McClymont respectively.

Both had good debuts at Montgomery Park on Sunday. Kokoska, bought for $6500 from Sunshine, steadied the defence and helped organise it and McClymont, from Scottish club Motherwell, showed some brilliant touches in the first half.

The scoreless draw lifted Lions from last place to second last but left Makedonia un-changed in ninth position.

Neither team deserves to be so far down the ladder.

Makedonia was the superior team in attack, partly because it played four men there instead of three and also because McClymont and John McQuade did a lot of intelligent criss-cross running which, on Kokoska's own admission, caused problems to the Essendon defence.

Lions' attack had two major problems. The first was that Nick Kuzmanov tried to dribble three men in a row instead of passing the ball and the second was that no one played off central striker Eddy Krncevic.

Krncevic wasn't afraid to get into the thick of things and in fact, won quite a few balls in the air, but there was no one running next to him to take advantage of them.

Ken Murphy tried very hard on the left wing. He looked good on his own but when he went down the line he was confronted by Steve Trajkovski who proved very difficult to pass.

And in the middle of Makedonia's defence Tom Brewerton was extremely sound, although his distribution could have been better. However, he wasn't the only one with this failing.

Makedonia dominated the first half hour because Lions' midfielders all pushed up into attack at the same time, leaving John Bernard in the open to dictate play.

McClymont and new winger Gelevski from J.U.S.T. were also mobile and creative during this period.

In the second half, Howard Andrews and John Wallace paid more attention to defence, leaving Branko Culina to come forward and this worked well, making Lions chance for Makedonia's Gelevski who was found in the open after a one-two between Steve Beech and McQuade but Gelevski shot straight at goalkeeper John Kennedy.

Two minutes later Brian Flaherty beat Ante Bilaver on a run down the left wing and crossed to the middle where McClymont slid in and hit the bar.

Essendon wasted two scoring opportunities. First Kuzmanov squandered the ball after he had been put through with a quick pass from Kokoska and then Krncevic turned on the ball, facing only the goalkeeper but instead of running towards goal, he shot too early and Peter Laumets saved easily.

Bernard found open space for McClymont who angled the ball to McQuade storming through the middle but Kennedy got to the ball first and Makedonia's chance was lost.

Then Hugh Gunn, playing a fine game, cleared off the line from McQuade after Kennedy and the Essendon defenders had missed Gelevski's cross.

In the 34th minute Andrews tried a speculative shot from the right wing. It bounced off the post to Kokoska whose attemped follow-up was foiled in the air by Frank Campbell.

It was end-to-end play as Makedonia fought back. Flaherty made his way into the penalty area but was stopped by a Kokoska tackle which sent the ball to Bernard but George Train came to the rescue with another tackle.

Just after half time Kennedy stopped a shrewd square ball from Flaherty with McQuade steaming through the middle and then Essendon wasted a scoring chance.

Kuzmanov was again the culprit. He got the ball inside the penalty area with John Wallace running unmarked through the middle. A short pass into Wallace's path would have given Lions the winning goal but instead Kuzmanov fiddled with the ball and lost it for a corner.

A few minutes later an angry Kuzmanov was replaced by Drago Krajina but instead of sending Culina to the right wing, Krajina played there in a role to which he is not accustomed.

Bernard had lost some of his prominence and was replaced by Chris Petrov and shortly afterwards Tommy Fox came on for McClymont and new winger Gelevski from J.U.S.T. were also mobile and creative during this period.

In the second half, Howard Andrews and John Wallace paid more attention to defence, leaving Branko Culina to come forward and this worked well, making Lions

Hearts get Ormond

GLASGOW: Willie Ormond has resigned as manager of Scotland's national team to take charge of Scottish First Division club Hearts.

The Scottish Football Association announced it hoped to find a replacement before the British international championship later this month and Scotland's tour of South America next month.

Ormond, who took over from Tommy Docherty in 1973, steered Scotland to the 1974 World Cup finals, where it remained unbeaten in its three group matches although it failed to reach the quarter-finals.

Scotland won the British championship outright last year for the first time since 1967 after beating all three home countries.

But the job was not always easy for Ormond, who faced a crisis when five of his internationals received a life ban from international football after incidents in Denmark in 1975.

Juventus wins the first leg

Iribar of Athletic Bilbao — also Spanish national team goalkeeper.

TURIN, Italy, Juventus beat Athletic Bilbao of Spain 1-0 in the first leg of the UEFA (European Football Union) Cup final here.

A 14th-minute header by Marco Tardelli carried Juventus through. The Spanish team counter-attacked vigorously after the goal, holding its hosts in midfield and determined to keep down the advantage the Italians will take to the second leg in Bilbao on May 18.

The match began in good humour, with apologies for fouls, but turned sour in a rash of free kicks early in the second half.

Juventus striker Roberto Boninsegna was an early casualty.

He suffered a leg injury within five minutes but struggled on for a further half hour before Sergio Gori replaced him.

Indecision crippled Juventus' second half attacks, with passes constantly going backwards. For much of the game only Franco Causio seemed prepared to attack.

The Italians' usual hero, Roberto Bettega was isolated throughout by Bilbao's defence.

Juventas wasted several opportunities, with goalkeeper Iribar equal to everything within reach.

The 65,000 capacity crowd saw play parked in the Spanish penalty area for 20 or so minutes but move to midfield for the rest of the match. AAP REUTER

$40,000 transfer

In Scotland Hearts have signed Ayr winger Malcolm Robertson for around $40,000. The Tynecastle club also tried to sign Motherwell's Bobby Graham but the deal fell through.

Meanwhile, Dunfermline, bidding for promotion to the Scottish First Division, have signed striker Jim Mullin from East Stirlingshire. He was formerly with Partick Thistle.

Can Anderlecht do it again?

Can Anderlecht of Belgium win the European Cup Winners' Cup for the second successive year? That question will be answered today (Wednesday) when the Belgians tackle Hamburger SV of West Germany in the final.

Venue is Amsterdam and the result will be available tomorrow (Thursday) morning.

Anderlecht won the Cup last year by beating West Ham of England, 4-2.

The victory was largely the work of Anderlecht's Dutch international Rob Rensenbrink and Francois van der Elst, who cut up the West Ham defence with their speed and skill.

There two, plus midfielders Coek and Haan will again be the key men in the final against Hamburg.

Hamburg also features a famous Dutchman in defender Horst Blenkenburg, 29, who helped Ajax win the European Cup a few years ago.

The team's goal power comes from Willi Reimann, 27, Georg Volkert, 31, and Arno Steffenhagen, 27.

All three have double figures on the West German goalscorers' list.

Another star in the Hamburg team is goalkeeper Rudi Kargus, who is reserve to Sepp Meier in the West German national team.

On its way to the Cup final, Hamburg has scored 21 goals in its eight games against Keflavik (Iceland), Hearts (Scotland), MTK Budapest and Atletic Madrid.

Anderlecht has beaten Roda JC (Holland), Galatasaray (Turkey), Southampton (England), and Napoli (Italy).

Hamburg is in seventh position on the German Bundesliga table, behind Moenchengladbach, Braunschweig, Schalke, Frankfurt, FC Koeln and Duisburg.

We don't have an up-to-date table for Belgium, but at the end of April, Anderlecht was lying third behind FC Bruges and RWD Molenbeek.

Hamburg doesn't have an exceptional defence — and you've got to be exceptional to hold the mighty Rensenbrink who, without doubt, is one of the finest players in the world.

Yet Hamburg's attack is capable of scoring against anyone, as it showed in the return leg against Atletico Madrid.

Hamburg had lost the first leg 1-3 in Madrid, yet at the Volksparkstadion in Hamburg, the Germans fined up with four forwards and scored three times in a 12-minute blitz.

It should be a high-scoring final. We predict a 3-2 result either way, with Anderlecht holding a slight edge.

Soccer a vehicle for pyjama tops

THERE are many aspects of Australia's new national league that run parallel to the North American Soccer League (NASL) — competition for crowds, vast distances between cities, importation of players and, inevitably, money-making. The Americans have money-making down to a fine art and soccer has become part of the art, as explained in this article by PAUL GARDNER, writing in the April edition of the magazine "WORLD SOCCER" . . .

YOU MIGHT wonder what dinner napkins, toddler bibs, pyjamas, wristwatches, flat-top hats, lamps, wastepaper baskets and ashtrays have to do with soccer. If you do wonder, than I'm afraid you are showing deplorable ignorance of the commercial potential of soccer.

After all, when you come to think about it, would you not want your kids to go to bed clad in pyjamas that say "Tampa Bay Rowdies" all over them? Would you not delight in wiping your mouth on a napkin embroidered "Chicago Sting"? Would you not be excited by the idea of reading by the light of a lamp shaped like a soccer ball?

Well, of course you would. That's more like it. Now you are acting like a proper consumer. You are taking your place among the millions that North American Soccer League hopes to seduce with such products in the next few years.

Though it is not strictly the NASL. There is another entity called NASL Marketing Inc. Its president is Steve Caspers, a marketing man with impeccable marketing credentials from advertising agencies and television. A marketing man whose conversation bristles with marketing jargon, pay-out, socio-economic indicators.

He occupies a light and airy corner office with one of those spectacular Manhattan views, an office that has a heap of soccer balls on one windowsill, a mound of T-shirts on a side-table, some mysterious-looking designs lying on the floor, the only flat surface that seems to be available for them.

Caspers is in his shirt sleeves, in constant motion around the office, restless because he has given up smoking. Between journeys from one side of the office to the other, from the window to the door and back, he defines the function of NASL Marketing: "To create universal awareness of the sport of soccer, with particular emphasis on the teams in our league."

NASL-M was set up by the clubs in the league, each of which contributed about $2000 to the original capitalisation. Since then its losses have been borne by the clubs, bringing their total contributions so far to around $9,000 each club.

But Caspers believes the days of the clubs' paying in are over. They will now start receiving money instead: any profits that NASL-M makes will be split equally among the clubs.

"This year I think we'll make a profit. That's normal for launching a new product. If you put a new toothpaste on the market, you would expect a three-year-period before you start to look for pay-out," says Caspers.

A spluttered protest from the traditionalists —"But, really, you are surely not saying that soccer can be treated in the same way as toothpaste?"

It is brushed aside — "Yes, it's no different. you go out and market it, get it off the shelves. Our product is soccer, it's an entertainment product that we're selling to the consuming public. We are competing for the entertainment dollar with the other sports."

NASL-M has three main ways of helping to get soccer off the shelves, which is to say it has three ways of bringing in money: Selling advertising in the NASL's game program Kick; promotions; and licensing.

Advertising: this is bringing in most money at the moment. Kick Magazine is a 16 to 32 page booklet that is produced and published by NASL-M and is distributed to all 18 league clubs for stitching into their own game programs. It is changed every other week: about half of its content is editorial, half advertisements from firms such as Toyota, Chevrolet and Dodge cars. Dr Pepper and Coca-Cola soft drinks, Voit and Pony sports equipment, Eastern Airlines — big firms, interested in the national market.

Promotions: The NASL has a number of annual awards, such as the league's most valuable player, (MVP), the best American player, the rookie of the year, etc. What NASL-M does is to find sponsors for these awards who pay a fee of, say $25,000. In return, all publicity concerning the awards will feature, exclusively, the sponsor;s name and product. The American player award, for instance, is known, rather combrously, as the Pepsi-Cola Award in Honor of Pele. The MVP award is sponsored by Toyota who give one of their cars to the winner (a fine arrangement somewhat marred last season when the award was won by Pele, who has a personal contract with Honda.)

Licensing: The really big money is expected, ultimately, to come from licensing. In its simplest form, it works like this: a manufacturer of T-shirts believes he can make money selling shirts with the NASL team logos printed on them. NASL-M, satisfied that he can produce a quality product and will do a good marketing job, grants him the exclusive right to produce such T-shirts. In return, NASL-M will receive a percentage (probably between five and 10 per cent) of his profits on this item. NASL-M now has 20 different manufacturers licenced to manufacture some 50 products. which is where all those napkins, toddler bibs, lamps and ashtrays come in.

Each club has its own logo, but the right to use them in merchandising have been assigned to NASL-M. The advantages are apparent. Caspers: "No T-shirt manufacturer wants to deal with 18 different clubs. He comes to us and negotiates one deal for all 18 T-shirts." The centralisation of the operation also gives the NASL some control over the quality of the products. In fact, all the designs have to be approved by the league, which means they must have Commissioner Phil Woosman's personal OK.

If there is a star attraction in the NASL-M licensing field, it is the NASL ball—the white ball with the blue panels and the red stars. The design is, of course, trade-marked, and until recently was produced exclusively by Adidas. But Adidas was selling only to exclusive soccer stores, and NASL-M wanted sales in large department stores, more exposure. The result was the licensing of another manufacturer to make cheaper leather and rubber balls for mass distribution.

It is no secret that NASL-M's dream of success are based heavily on what the National (Grid) Football League NFL) has achieved. NFL Properties Inc makes a profit of between $6 and $7 million a year, about $4 million of which comes from the licensing of the products listed and illustrated in full colour in their slick 100-page Merchandise Catalogue. Will NASL Marketing ever be able to make that sort of money? Caspers is non-committal, but promises: "We will reach the $1 million mark in 1978."

The growing love affair between advertisers and sponsors on one hand and soccer on the other is worth a little study. It revolves around another of those marketing words, demographics. Population studies, if you like, lists and tables that tell you who lives where, how old they are, how educated, how rich, what they buy.

The car makers and the soft drink manufacturers and so on have their own ideal demographics, portraying the sort of people they want to reach with their advertsing. Would it not be nice for soccer if the NASL's demographics of their fans turned out to coincide with those of the car and soft drink people? The NASL's figures based on a survey that was conducted during last season's games, paints a highly optimistic picture of the fan as a consumer.

65% have at least one year of college education.

47% have white-collar jobs.

66% come from families earning over $15,000 a year.

47% are females.

80% are below the age of 49.

47% are current or former players of sport.

85% bought sports equipment in the past year.

66% bought women's perfume.

33% bought a car.

88% bought soft drinks 10 times a month.

These are impressive figures, I am told, the sort of figures that excite advertisers and sponsors. Particularly that "47% females" total. "No other sport has anything like that" says Steve Caspers. "Grid football and hockey are 80% to 90% male. But women are very important in the decision to purchase. We can reach them. Look — in Kick Magazine we now have ads for Clairol."

Arthur Zaikos knew what he was talking about

By LAURIE SCHWAB

The many people from interstate who were surprised by the emergence of West Adelaide Hellas as one of the top teams in the national league had probably never bothered to study the club closely.

If they had, they would have known that Hellas has never settled for second best.

They would have known that Hellas has been South Australia's most successful club over the past 10 years, winning the championship six times since 1964, including last year.

In addition, Hellas has won the Federation Cup twice and the Ampol Cup seven times in that period.

And to put itself on an even firmer footing, Hellas recently moved into a $1 million social club and administrative complex in the heart of Adelaide.

You wouldn't expect any less from a club whose patron is none other than Don Dunstan, premier of South Australia.

Just as Dunstan is one of Australia's most progressive politicians, so Hellas is one of our most progressive soccer clubs.

Hellas president Dr. Arthur Zaikos spoke in a matter-of-fact way when he predicted back in January that Adelaide would be prominent in the national league.

On January 26, in our first issue for 1976, we reported Dr. Zaikos saying: "Tell Sydney and Melbourne that times are changing. South Australia will be a force in the national league."

At that time Dr. Zaikos had recruited Gordon McCulloch from Azzurri in Perth, imported Peter Boyle from Scotland, signed Graham Honeyman from Hakoah and lured coach Mike Johnson from Sydney.

The best was yet to come!

Australian under 23 international David Jones joined Hellas from Tricolore in Perth and then came the biggest capture of them all — John Kosmina from Polonia (SA).

He was secured for a year's loan. The loan fee was said to be $4000 and rumor had it that Kosmina would be paid about $7000.

Everyone had been after Kosmina, the national team striker who had been such a hit on the Socceroos' world tour just a few months earlier.

Juventus Adelaide president Charlie Caruso got into trouble with the ASF for negotiating with Kosmina without permission, yet Marconi had been doing the same thing, not to mention almost every other top club.

Theoretically, Australian-born Kosmina has to return to Polonia (where his father Alex is on the committee) at the end of the season, but who can see John going back to second-rate stuff?

If Kosmina has proved a star with Hellas (four goals up to and including round five), then his team mate Ian McGregor has been just as good, if not better.

And McGregor, like Kosmina, is a local boy who came up through the Hellas juniors.

If South Australian clubs can produce more players of this quality, then surely it will become Australia's leading soccer State.

Already, it is drawing the biggest crowds, which means that eventually it will be able to buy the best players. (What about Juventus' purchase of Agenor Muniz and Dixie Dean?).

And unlike the eastern States, South Australia has never had a superiority complex which could have hampered its progress.

Like a conscientious fringe player fighting for a first team place, Adelaide's top clubs have been absolutely painstaking in ensuring they can not only compete with the best from Melbourne and Sydney but beat them!

Now the boot is on the other foot.

It is Melbourne and Sydney which must struggle to win back their "first team" place.

For the record:

West Adelaide-Hellas was founded in 1949 by Adelaide's Greek Community and was known as 'Olympic'.

1964 WON the Ampol Cup and the Federation Cup.

1966 STATE League Champions

1967 WON the Federation Cup.

1968 — STATE League Champions and Ampol Cup winners.

1969 STATE League Champions.

1970 AMPOL Cup Winners and Coca-Cola Challenge Cup Winners.

1971 STATE League Champions and Ampol Cup winners.

1972 AMPOL Cup Winners.

1973 STATE League Champions.

1974 COCA-COLA Challenge Cup Winners.

1975 AMPOL Cup Winners and Coca-Cola Challenge Cup Winners.

1976 STATE League Champions and Ampol Cup Winners.

Soccer growing in the Valley

Despite the problem of having to travel long distances (up to 400 km), soccer is getting stronger and stronger in the Latrobe Valley (Vic).

A new club, Feyenoord of Traralgon, already has 12 junior teams!

Another new club, Drouin Dragons, has four juniors teams in addition to its seniors.

Other clubs doing well in Australian Rules strongholds are Leongatha (2 senior, 3 junior teams), Warragul (one senior, 5 junior), Sale City (2 senior, 8 junior), St. Pat's (2 senior), Bairnsdale (1 senior, 4 junior) and Bairnsdale United (1 senior, 3 junior).

Soccer is also getting a foothold in the extreme east of Victoria, where Cann River and Mallacoota play in the South East NSW League with Eden, Bombala, Cooma and others.

Last year's No. 10 Mallacoota, Jim Okete, a Fijian, went back home and played against Australia, scoring the only goal of the match earlier this year in Suva.

The Latrobe Valley will test itself against Melbourne Soccer when its representative team plays against Green Gully Ajax at Morwell in September.

This Sunday's Latrobe Valley games:

FIRST DIV. AND RESERVES: Rangers v. Newborough, Monash v Moe, Churchill v Pegasus, Leongatha v Sale City, Traralgon v Fortuna.

SECOND DIV: RAAF East Sale v Bairnsdale, Bairnsdale United v Sale Cardinals, St. Patrick's College v

Hughes is top player

LONDON: Emlyn Hughes, captain of treble-chasing Liverpool, has been named Footballer of the Year by the English Football Writers' Association.

Second was West Bromwich Albion player-manager Johnny Giles, and third was Martin Buchan, captain of Manchester United.

Leeds fans have a club here

SIR, — Although the English football league club, Leeds United, was recently put out of the FA Cup by Manchester Utd in the semi-finals, I thought your readers would be interested to know the address of the Australian Branch of the Leeds Utd Supporters' Club.

There are not many people in this country who follow British football ardently but the club in England felt there should be enough supporters of Leeds to form a branch in Australia. If any readers are interested in joining the supporters club they could send their enquiries to:

The Secretary, LUSC,
337 Anson Street,
Orange, 2800,
N.S.W.

We provide the best service possible to members, including recent transfer news, League fixtures, achievements of Central League and Northern Intermediate League teams, leading scorers, and provide competitions for members of the club.

British branches of the Supporters Club work within smaller areas and are able to organise outings to matches etc. Unfortunately, due to the vast expanse our branch covers and the relatively small membership, we can only try to arrange

And now for the league!

These under 13 Eagles recently swooped to a 4-2 victory over Green Gully Ajax to finally claim the Junior Ampol Cup for Nunawading City Soccer Club.

Some of the boys have been together for up to six years and, during that time, have held every junior trophy at some stage in their distinguished career.

Over the years the team has attracted some talented youngsters, some of whom have achieved State selection.

With such strength in key positions in attack and defence, the under 13 Eagles must be favorites to win the title.

In order to establish a more competitive season for 1977, the Eagles will play in the under 14 League.

Mr Marinovic, coach, and Mr Pahljina, manager, are looking forward to the challenge of the big league.

A view from the junior ranks
BY LEIF JENSEN

We have extended our Dunlop soccer ball competition for one week to give you a little more time to submit your entries.

First, start your letter with your name, address, age and the club you play for, and then answer the five questions in correct order:

1. Why did you start to play soccer?
2. Does it matter to you whether your team wins or loses, and if so tell me why?
3. What do you hate most in soccer?
4. Do you want to play senior soccer when you are finished with the juniors?
5. Name two of your favorite soccer players.

Now all you do when you have answered these questions, is to send your letter to me, C/- "Soccer Action".

We will then decide which is the best letter, your letter will be published, and you do of course win the Dunlop soccer ball.

I would like to ask junior coaches once again: Please tell the boys in your team about this competition.

We are still wanting stories with pictures from all you junior clubs. It is your chance to get some of your local news in the paper.

What about you people in the country areas? We do not know enough about you, or how the soccer game is progressing in your district — Ballarat, Moe, Bendigo, Morwell and all the South Australian and NSW clubs. Let us hear from you soon!

Women's soccer

NSW by PAT O'CONNOR

Top goal scorer in the 1974 Australian women's championships, Ann Hamilton, is now back in England. Ann travelled back in 1975 and rejoined Aston Villa women's team, but has since transferred to the Coventry City team.

Ann was a striker for St George whilst in Sydney and is still "knocking them in" as she scored four for Coventry in their last game.

Cindi Heydon, right full back in the NSW team, has already had an offer to play for a London team when she is 18.

Cindi is now 16 years old and is one of the coolest defenders around.

Julie Dolan, the Georgie Best of NSW women's soccer, has now gone to live in the country with her family.

Julie, most will remember, scored the NSW goal in their game against Victoria, the final game of the 1976 championships.

At only 16 years old, Julie is one of the top players in NSW.

Christel Abouthum, star player for St George in previous years, is back in her native Germany.

Christel signed on for a team and travelled to Switzerland with them before business interests prevented her from continuing to play.

Trixie Barry, NSW striker, who passed her preliminary coaching course recently, applied to attend the senior coaching course, which would be run after completing a bridging course.

Trixie was accepted, but later was refused admission by the Australian Coaches Federation on the grounds that the course was too physical.

As Trixie wanted to be a soccer coach and not an all-in wrestler, the NSWWSA took up her case, but without much success.

Trixie is at University studying to become a P.E. teacher. She has since received an invitation to take the senior course run by another NSW coaching body.

Since writing this news for the news sheet, Trixie Barry, mentioned above, has been asked to contact Mr David Lee, a staff coach belonging to the Australian Soccer Coaches Federation, as he is now prepared to contact Mr Eric Worthington, National Director of Coaching, on her behalf and plead her case personally.

Vickie Kehen, centre half for NSW in Victoria, has retired from soccer to concentrate on her career. Vickie also is at University and wants to become a social worker. She also has a keen interest in the Salvation Army and takes 'learn-to-swim' classes for youngsters at the local pool.

VICTORIA by GINA MARTIN

South Melbourne Hellas is forming a women's team and hopes to affiliate with the Victorian Women's Soccer Association.

Secretary of Hellas, Nick Sagiakos, tells me he has 15 girls who are being coached by Manny Poulakakis and he has high hopes for them.

We shall arrange for 1st Div. sides which have a bye each week to play friendlies with Hellas, thus giving it match practice and keeping our own teams fit.

The date of the Interstate championships is drawing close and we still do not have a sponsor for the State team.

We need to raise money urgently. If anyone has a fund-raising idea please let me know, or if any club feels they would like to raise money for the State side, please do so.

Werribee signs Marshall

Victorian Provisional League club Werribee signed experienced defender Peter Marshall from State League club Green Gully Ajax last week.

Werribee paid Ajax a transfer fee of $650.

Marshall, previously played for Keilor City in the First Division and Footscray J.U.S.T. reserves.

Werribee also bought forward David McNeil from State League club Altona City.

His transfer fee was $150.

Clinton tops 200!

In Newcastle John Clinton received a gold medallion in appreciation of him playing 200 first grade games with Adamstown Rosebud.

John's tally overall is closer to 300 games when pre-season, reserve grade and State cup fixtures are taken into consideration.

His value as a club man could be measured no better than in his two hundredth match when he played his heart out for his team.

ENGLISH TRANSFERS TOTAL $10 MILLION

From the beginning of July, 1976, until March 10, 1977 English clubs spent about $10 million on players, a much higher figure than the 1975-76 season.

Since July there have been 14 transfer deals of $150,000 or more, seven involving fees of more than $350,000 and one of more than $550,000. that was of course for Malcolm Macdonald from Newcastle United to Arsenal.

The next highest was Derek Hales' $500,000 move from Charlton to Derby.

Deadline deals before the transfer season closed on March 10:

Hugh Fisher (Southampton, appointed pl. manager of Southport 10-3-77).

Sydney causes concern

STEPHEN KALUS

It is not all sunshine and smiles for the newly-formed Australian League. Attendances in NSW, reputedly the most powerful soccer State, are very disappointing.

In comparison with Melbourne, Adelaide, Brisbane and even Canberra, Sydney crowds are so far causing a lot of concern.

The most wealthy Australian clubs, Hakoah and St George, the biggest money spenders, are showing poor attendances at their home games and, with rising costs and lack of sponsorship, their administrators must have a lot of sleepless nights.

In Melbourne, of the four members of the League, only Footscray-JUST has succeeded in securing a wealthy sponsor (J.A.T.).

The three other members of the League are struggling to secure any form of sponsorship.

On top of it, Mooroolbark has internal troubles, with the recent scandalous suspension of the president of the club.

Footscray-JUST's overseas recruiting is still up in the air and the club is in desperate need of good forwards.

A public statement about the delay of the arrival of three Yugoslav stars is overdue. No wonder that the club's supporters are angry that the promised Jugoslavs have not arrived in time to strengthen the JUST team.

JIM MILISAVLJEVIC the former Footscray-JUST and national squad goalkeeper, has called it a day. Milisavljevic, after a severe wrist injury, could not play any longer in goal, but was starring as centre back and was a regular member of the JUST team in 1975 and 1976. At the end of last season Milisavljevic injured his knee at training and decided to hang up his boots.

JAN TOMASZEWSKI, one of the world's best goalkeepers, starred again in the Polish national team against Ireland in Dublin and Denmark in Copenhagen.

Tomaszewski, who was in trouble recently with Polish officials for his behaviour in the game against Rumania, is again the favorite goalkeeper of Jacek Gmoch's Polish national team.

☆ ☆ ☆

JOHN BARCLAY, one of the most prominent soccer administrators in Victoria and former Australian team manager for the World Cup series in Germany must be a very happy man these days.

His club, Frankston, was sitting on top of the ladder after three rounds of the State League competition.

It's a pity that the very popular John, who for years was a member of the Board of Management at Soccer House, is kept away from the management in these very troubled times of Victorian soccer.

Every four years "Polish Olympic Games" in various disiplines are organized in Poland for overseas Polish athletes and teams. This year the games will take place in Krakow in July.

Ted Lezon the well known Polish soccer official, writer and committee member of the Australian Soccer Press Association, will attend the Polish Games.

More former Hakoah-St Kilda players and committee members have contacted "Soccer Action" in regard to our story about the Golden Jubilee of the club. Dr Harry Fjzenberg of Ivanhoe played in Hakoah's team in the late forties. Jack Roessler, a former player and at present coach of the Monash University team, is ready to help his former club and is willing to join the jubilee committee which some former members have in mind to form very soon.

ZIKA NIKOLIC

Filips Nacionalna Liga je pored svih smetnji i prepreka postigla zadovoljavajuce rezultate. Ali na lovorikama se ne moze ziveti, jer svaki dan nosi nova iskusenja i nezgode. Strajk kontrolora letova je prinudio Nacionalnu Ligu da odlozi nekoliko utakmice, sto publika tesko prima. Na srecu, klubovi su ipak doskocili strajkacima. Na brzinu su organizovali nekoliko lokalnih utakmica, tako da je televizija ispunila ubicajeni program posvecen Nacionalnoj Ligi.

Helas i JUST su odigrali prijateljku utakmicu, privukli dosta navijaca i podelili nekoliko hiljada dolara. Pored toga, "plavi" su razbili maler koji ih prati protiv Helasa, tako da se skoro svaka utakmica zavrsavala, iako je JUST uvek vodio i imao vise igre.

ZORANOV PRVENAC

Ovog puta JUST je pobedio zasluzeno sa 2:1 (0:1). Prvo poluvreme je bilo promenljivo sve do 33. minuta. Obe strane su imale prilike, ali je Helas poveo sa 1:0 samo zato sto je Boland bez potrebe stao pet metara ispred gola. Udarac sa 25 metara uleteo je u same ralje. Boland je medjutim ovu gresku nekoliko puta kasnije isprevio, jer je odbranio opasne udarce.

U drugom poluvremenu JUST je bio putpuni gospodar igre. U 52. minutu posle guzve pred Helasovim golom, lopta je doletela do slobodnog Zorana Ilioskog, koji je odmah sutirao u gol. Nije bio jak udarac, ali je prevario golmana i nikoliko Helasovih igraca. Bek je samo potvrdio ulazak u mrezu.

Potedonosni gol je postigao Josip Picioane, posto je dobio loptu na tanjiru od Palinkasa.

Glavno JUST-ovo oruzje su bili Joe Palinkas i Mendo Ristovski. Dva opasna i brza kirla, koja je tesko drzati, jer se stalno krecu, pomazu svojoj odbrani kad je potrebno. Kada bi JUST imao visoke napadace u sredini, bilo bi golova kao kisa.

JUST je nastuplo u sledecem sastavu: Boland, Milne, Kazi, Kriaris, Kondarlos, Smith, Palinkas, Rujevic, (Micic), Picioane, Ilioski, Ristovski.

PRAVEDAN REZULTAT

Posto su golmani bili daleko boji nego napadaci oba tima, utakmica Essendon/Lions — Makedonij zavrsila sse pravedno bez golova i podelom bodova. Oba kluba su se ipak pomerili na tabeli, iako jos nisu osetili slast pebede. Essendonu se pruza prilika iduce nedelje, jer igra protiv Polonije, koja je zadnja na tabeli. Makedonija ima mnogo tezi zadatak protivu nepobedjenog George Crossa, ali iznenadjenja nisu isklucena.

Drugi tim JUST-a, koji se takmici u drugoj diviziji, takodje ima cvrstu odbranu ali mekanu navalu. Mladi i neiskusni igraci tesko se snalaze u takmicenju, gde oduciuje fizicka snaga. Dva brza JUST-ova krila mogla su da pobegnu svojim bekovima jedanput, ali drugi put je Petko Tomic tako pokosen da je morao biti prenet u bolnicu. Sudija nije dosudio ni faul, pa su posle toga mladi igraci sutirali loptu gde su stigli i bezali od svakod dodira sa protivnickim igracima. Sreca sto je golman Djordje Stefanides bio u formi, pa se utakmica zavrsila bez golova. Sastav JUST-a: Stefanides. Kralc, Mikulic, Stojcevski, Cankovic, Aceski, Hatwany (Tome Petreski), Grbac, Belic, Pece Petreski, Tomic (Taleski).

BELI DALI POLA TUCETA

INTER iz Williamstowna je isnenadio domacina efikasnom igrom. Navala "belih" je dosla do izrazaja u drugom poluvremenu, pa je South Dandenong visoko poražen sa 6:1 (2:1). Strelci: Marko Ivanovic 3, Milorad Milosavljevic, Zvonko Bartol i Dragisa Pantic po jedan. Ceo tim je odlicno igrao, nije bilo slabih mesta, ali ipak prednjacili su korisnom igrom Franjo Drozdek, Milorad Milosavljevic i Andrija Dovic. Za uspeh je zasluzan i novi trener Nikola Petrovic. Sastav Intera: Zarko Stefanovic, Janko Dovic, Danilo Radojevic, Milosavljevic, Drozdek, Cetinic, Andrija Dovic, Pantic, Ivanovic, Bartol, Belurov.

Pretposlednji Carlton je dobro oznojio North Dandenong, koji je prvi na tabeli druge provizionalne lege, dok u zavrsnici nije odiuclla kondicija. North Dandenong je pobedio sa 4:3 (2:3), iako je Carlton/Srbija tri puta vodila. Za pozaz je kriv i slab golman, kome su dve lopte sa pola igralista prosle kroz ruke. Sastav Carltona: Seles, Krnic, Nikolic, Djordjevic, Dodig, Milinov, Bjelogrlic, Grnja, Stojilovic, Velickovic, Ceranic. Strelci za Srbiju: Milan Stojilovic 2 i Djuro Grnja 1. Najbolji igrace: Stojilovic, Djordjevic, Dodig, Milinov.

Sve tri rezerve su izgubile. Moreland je pobedio JUST-ovu rezervu sa 5:2, iako su "plavi" poveli sa 2:0. Obe gola je postigao Petko Dimcevski. South Dandenong — Inter 4:2 i North Dandenong Carlton 2:1.

Iduce subote JUST igra protiv Mooroolbarka na svom igralistu u Footscray-u, dok u nedelju JUST igra za Nacionalnu Ligu na Olympic Parku protiv Canberra City.

AMATERSKA TAKMICENJA U MELBURNU

Posto je ostao bez osam najboljih igraca, PELISTER iz Pascoe Valea je izgubio sve cetiri prvenstvene utakmice u ovoj godini. Mali zracak nade uneo je povratak golmana Bil Dzanovskog. Prosle nedelje je Mordialloc savladao Pelistera sa 3:1. Jedini gol je postigao Jorgo Tiloski.

Treci tim Intera (Williamstowna, koji ima igraliste u Springvale-u, pobedio je Dovetona sa 3:2 (2:2). Strelci: Culibrk u 26., Cakovan u 42. i Paunov u 68. minutu. Sastav: Zdenko Mecanovic, Mirko Zec, Pavle Jonovic, Risto Paunov, Dragan Janjic, Kemal Kalm, Zvonko Mecanovic, Melenko Culibrk, Milenko Busija (Hicko Kalm), Marko Miljojkovic, Mirko Cakovan (Slevo Jelisic). Rezerva: Adam Rajkovic. Najbolji igrac: Paunov, Zec i Jelisic.

INDUSTRISKA LIGA

Posle zanimljive i ravnopravne igre PEGAZUS je pobedio Repco/Richmond sa 2:1. Strelic — Zvonko Skorupski i Stjepan Fus.

TARAX je opet podelio bodove sa Willsom posle uzbudljive igre. Rezultat odgovara Tarax-u, jer za Wills igraju nekadasnje prvoligaske avezde, kao sto su McMeecham, Anderson, Clarke, Dochery i drugi. Utakmica se zavrsila 3:3 (2:2). Wills je poveo sa 1:0 u 10. minutu, ali je Adamovic ubrzo izjednacio udarcem sa 25 metara, koji je kao raketa uleteo u mrezu. Wills opet vodi sa 2:1, ali iskusni Ceda Cirkovic stvara sansu McCallu koja se ne moze promasiti — 2:2. U drugom poluvremenu Crikovic dovodi Tarax u vodjstvo, ali greska odbrane omogucuje Willsu da izvuce jedan bod. Iako najmladji Mladen Kresinger je bio najbolji igrac na terenu. Pored njega treba pohvaliti Milosa Adamovica, Brkica i Davisa.

Zbog povreda i sportskih obaveza nisu opet igrali Milenko Rusmir, Vera Mladenovic i Ivan Milicevic. Sastav Taraxa: Kazi 6, Genja Kostromin 5, Rankovic 6, Milovanovic 6, DAvis 6, Brkic 7, Cirkovic 7, Kresinger 7, Adamovic 7, McCall 6, Backovic 5 (Jakovincic 5).

JUNIORSKI KUP

JUST-ovi juniori su prebrodili prvi prepreku za juniorske kupove. Tim ispod 13 godina je savladao Helas sa 3:0 (1:0). Plavi malisani su nadigrali protivnika u svakom pogledu. Strelci: Miki Cvetkovski, Dragan Trkulja i Jorgo Gagic. Tesko je izdvojiti najboljeg igraca. Sastav JUST-a: Josip Car, Tomislav Karic, Argo Redzep, Marino Oblak, Jorgo Gagic, Stojce Ilimoski, Rajko Trkulja, Bil Skubeski (Emil Petrov), Zoran Nasteski, Miki Dvetkovski, Dragan Trkulja.

Posto protivnik nije hteo da igra produzetak, jer je u regularnom vremenu rezultat bio 2:2, JUST-v tim ispod 15 godina plasirao se u drugo kolo juniorskog kupa. Croydon je vodio sa 2:0, ali su pred kraj posustali, sto je JUST iskoristio da izjednaci. Golove su postigli Oscar Crino i Branko Mitrovic. Najbolji su bili Branko Mitrovic, Lube Taleski, Oscar Crino, Zoran Trpcevski i Josip Car.

OSTALI REZULTATI

U Geelongu je Norland/J.A.S.K. zabelezio prvu pobedu protiv Barion City-a. Mladi tim "plavih" je pobedio sa 4:11. Iduce nedelje JASK igra kprotiv North Geelong/Croatije na svom igralistu.

U Adelaidi je BEOGRAD zasluzeno pobedio Elizabeth sa 3:1. Ako "plavi" pobede iduce subote Polonju popece se na celo tabele. Strelci za Beograd: Alder 38. m., Kamleitner 40. i Russo 85. minut. CROATIA je igrala 1:1 sa Azurima.

ZASLUZENA POBEDA RUMUNA

Po treci put Rumunija je pobedila Jugoslaviju u Zagrebu. Ovog puta sa 2:0. Takav je bar rezultat bio na pet minuta pre tuznog kraja. Zahvaljujuci mudroj taktici Stefana Kovaca, Rumuni su otisli na odmor sa resultatom 2:0 us svoju korist. Prvi gol je postigao najbolji strelac Evrope Georgescu u 38. minutu, a Jorganesku je tusirao pokolebanu "plavu" odbranu u 45. minutu. Selektor Bajevic je ubacio dva Zvezdina napadaca Savica i Filipovica, ali sve je bilo kasno, jer su se Rumuni murdo branili od nervoznih jugoslovenskih napada. Jugoslavija je nastupila u sledecem sastavu: Katalinic, Buljan, Muzinic, Peruzovic, Katalinski, Surjak, Popivoda, Oblak, Jerkovic, Dzajic. U drugom poluvremenu je Savic zamenio Buljana, a Filipovic Bajevica.

U drugoj ligi vodeci klubovi posustaju. U 29. kolu POBEDA je savladala Vardar sa 2:0, dok us Sumadija i Radnicki (Pirot) igrali 1:11. Posto je Trepca pobedila Jedinstvo sa 2:0, ponovo je na celu tabele sa 38 bodova. Slede: Radnicki (Pirot) 37, Vardar 36, Borac 35 itd. U zapadnjoj grupi Osijek je sacuvao prvo mesto, iako je izgubio od Iskre sa 2:1 u 28. kolu. Ostali rezultati: Dinamo — je izgubio od Iskre sa 2:1 u 28. kolu. Ostali rezultati: Dinamo — Novi Sad 0:0, Jedinstvo (Bihac) — Jedinstvo (Brcko) 0:0. Osijek vodi sa 38 bodova, Novi Sad 36, Kikinda 34, Jedinstvo (:Bihac) 32.

Recruits turn pushover into a giant

By LAURIE SCHWAB

Frankston City is the season's success story so far.

Anyone who watched Frankston's pathetic efforts in the Victorian Ampol Cup would have laughed hysterically had it been suggested that Frankston would be a contender for the State League championship.

Yet due to some shrewd recruiting, Frankston has become just that!

Goalkeeper Frank Peterson (ex-George Cross, Kellor — Austria and South Melbourne Hellas) has been bought from Essendon Lions (this guy gets around!)

Eric Gillespie has been imported from Petershill in Scotland and striker Gus Eadie was flown in from Hong Kong.

Keith Webster, still one of the shrewdest midfielders around, was added from Fitzroy Alexander. Before Fitzroy he was with Juventus where, together with Frankston's Sandy Irvine, he played in the great 1970 team which won the championship, Dockerty Cup and State League Cup.

Another recruit is experienced David Gorrie, bought from Brighton. He went to Brighton after being player-coach of Juventus. Before that he was a leading forward and midfielder with South Melbourne Hellas.

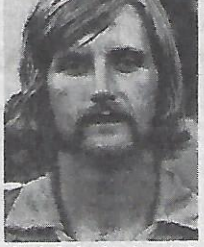
Andy Savage also comes from Hellas. He is highly skilful and has proved valuable as a midfielder or forward.

Frankston is fortunate to have a young player as talented as Mark Fail who has the speed to beat any defence and who is fast developing a sharp goal sense.

Bill Buchanan and Ernie Merrick have been valuable players for Frankston and it would be a pity to see them leave.

Frankston now has the players, and administrators — including former national team manager John Barclay — to aim for the title. The team, that was a pushover two months ago has grown into a giant.

Not bad for a club that's newly promoted!



Sandy Irvine (ex-Juventus) — played for Australia in 1969 and 1970.

Goalkeeper Frank Peterson, ex-George Cross, Austria, Hellas and Lions.

Fogale has Bulleen attacking

Victorian District League club Bulleen is looking forward to bigger things with the promotion-relegation set-up now existing throughout the Victorian Leagues.

Under the guidance of new coach Claude Fogale, formerly at Juventus, the young team is playing a more attacking brand of soccer this year.

With new acquisition Ernie Tanburini (from Juventus) completing a solid defence, captain Carlo Graser (last year's best and fairest) has moved into midfield joining secretary, Adrian Spadaro, another fine player.

Socially the club is among the best in Victoria, having the backing of the Veneto Social Club.

The soccer team is financed by the young people of the club, whose monthly functions include rock dances and discos.

So both on and off the field Bulleen expects to be very successful in the coming years and eventually become one of the best clubs in Australia.

ΤΙ ΕΙΔΟΥΣ ΠΡΩΤΑΘΛΗΜΑ ΒΛΕΠΟΥΜΕ;

Ὑπάρχει σὲ καμμιὰ χώρα, φιλικὸ πρωτάθλημα Ἐθνικῆς Κατηγορίας, ὅπου δὲν βαθμολογοῦνται οἱ ὁμάδες ὅταν δὲν παίζουν ἢ ὅταν κανονίζουν τοὺς ἀγῶνες τους ὅπως καὶ ὁποτε τοὺς ἀρέση; Ἂν δὲν ἔχετε ἀρῆ ἀκόμη τὴ χώρα μὴ πτοεχωρεῖστε. διότι εἶναι πολὺ εὔκολο. Εἶναι ἡ χώρα ποὺ ἀρι σκόμαστε. Ἡ χώρα ποὺ γιὰ πρώτη φορὰ ὀργάνωσε τὸ πρῶτο Ἐθνικό της πρωτάθλημα ποδοσφαίρου καὶ ὅπως πάνε τὰ πράγματα θὰ τὸ κατανήση «καλλιτεχνικὸ ὀργανισμὸ», ὅπου μὲ τὴν πρώτη βροχὴ ἢ χαλάζι θὰ ἀναβάλωνται οἱ ἀγῶνες, ἂν οἱ παίκτες εἶναι ἀδιάθετοι δὲν θὰ ἀντικαταστοῦνται παρὰ οἱ ὁμάδες δὲν θὰ παίζουν καὶ γιὰ τὸ ζενίθ αὐτῆς τῆς φιλικῆς Ἑταιρίας δὲν θὰ βαθμολογοῦνται.

Εὐκαιρία γιὰ τὸ ἄρθρο μᾶς ἔδωσε ἡ πρόσφατη ἀπεργία τῶν ἐλεγκτῶν πτήσεως (ἴσως σήμερα ἔληξε ἴσως ὄχι) καὶ ἡ ἀναβολὴ τριῶν ἀγώνων τοῦ πρωαθλήματος (Ἑλλὰς — Σαίντ Τζώρτζ, Μπρίσμπαν Σίτυ — Τζάστ καὶ Μπρίσμπαν Λάϊονς — Ἑλλὰς Ἀδελαΐδος.)

Αἰτία τῆς ἀναβολῆς ἦταν φυσικὰ ἡ ἔλλειψη ἀεροπλάνων λόγω τῆς ἀπεργίας. Μ' αὐτὴ τὴν αἰτία οἱ ὁμάδες τῆς κάθε πολιτείας ποὺ εἶχαν ἀγῶνα τὴν Κυριακὴ δὲν ταξίδεψαν γιὰ τοὺς ἐκτὸς ἕδρας ἀγῶνες τους.

Καὶ ὅμως τὰ ἀεροπλάνα δὲν ἦταν τὸ μόνο μέσον μεταφορᾶς στὴ χώρα τό περασμένο Σαββατοκύριακο. Ὑπῆρχαν τραῖνα καὶ λεωφορεῖα ἀρκετὰ ἀναπαυτικὰ ποὺ θὰ μποροῦσαν νὰ χρησιμοποιηθοῦν ἀπὸ τὶς ὁμάδες ἐγκαίρως οὕτως ὥστε νὰ βρίσκωνται ἐγκαίρως ἐκεῖ ποὺ πρόκειται νὰ δώσουν ἀγῶνα.. Ἡ ἀπεργία ἀνακοινώθηκε τὴν Παρασκευὴ τὸ ἀπόγευμα καὶ ἡ κάθε ὁμάδα εἶχε τὸν καιρὸ νὰ ταξιδέψη τὸ ἴδιο βράδυ μὲ τὸ τραῖνο ἢ καὶ τὸ Σάββατο τὸ πρωῒ καὶ νὰ ἔχουν ὅλον τὸ καιρὸ νὰ ἀναπαυθοῦν οἱ παίκτες, ὥστε νὰ αἰσθάνωνται περδίκια τὴν Κυριακὴ τὸ πρωῒ καὶ — κάλυτερα ἀκόμα — νὰ μὴ ρίζουν μιὰ τυχὸν ἥττα τους, στὸ μακρυνὸ ταξίδι.

Τίποτα ὅμως ἀπὸ αὐτὰ δὲν ἔγινε καὶ οἱ ἀπογοητευμένοι φίλαθλοι περιορίστηκαν στοὺς φιλικοὺς ἀγῶνες ἔτσι γιὰ νὰ βροῦν μιὰ εὐκαιρία νὰ ζοδέψουν τὸ διπλοδόλλαρό τους τὸ ὁποῖα ξεχώρισαν ἀπὸ τὸ φάκελλο τὴν Πέμπτη — «αὐτὸ γιὰ τὸ μάτς» — γιὰ τά ἀτομικά τους ἔξοδα.

Ὑπάρχουν δέβαια δι καιολογίες διότι τὰ λάθη γίνονται γιὰ νὰ ὑπάρχουν δικαιολογίες. Οἱ ὁμάδες ἢ καλύτερα οἱ ἰθύνοντες θὰ ποῦν ὅτι τὰ ἔξοδα μὲ τὸ τραῖνο, θὰ ἦταν τεράστια, μὲ τὸ λεωφορεῖο θὰ κουραζόταν, ἡ ἀπεργία ἔγινε ξαφνικὰ καὶ δὲν προλάβαιναν γιὰ καμμιὰ ἄλλη ἐνέργεια.

Δεκτὲς οἱ δικαιολογίες διότι τί ἄλλο μπορεῖ κανεὶς νὰ κάνη; Τί νὰ κάνη κανεὶς, ὅταν δὲν ἰσχύουν πλέον οἱ βασικοὶ κανονισμοὶ τοῦ ποδοσφαίρου ἕνας ἀπὸ τοὺς ὁποίους μάλιστα μηδενίζει τὴν ὁμάδα ποὺ χωρὶς τὴν ἔγκριση τῆς ὁμοσπον δίας δὲν κατεβαίνει στὸ γήπεδο νὰ παίξη.

Μπορεῖ ἡ Ὁμοσπον δία νὰ ἀνακοίνωσε ὅτι λόγω τῆς ἀπεργίας ἀναβάλλονται οἱ τρεῖς ἀγῶνες ὅπως θὰ μποροῦσαν κάλλιστα νὰ ἀναβληθοῦν γιὰ διάφορους ἄλλους λόγους, οἱ ὁποῖοι ἔκαναν ἀδύνατη τὴν διεξαγωγή τους. Οἱ ὁμάδες ὅμως ἀνακοίνωσαν οἱ ἴδιες στὴν Ὁμοσπονδία ὅτι δὲν κατεβαίνουν νὰ παίξουν καὶ ὄχι ἡ Ὁμοσπονδία ὁ' αὐτές. Σὲ ἕνα πρωτάθλημα τοῦ ὁποίου οἱ ἀγῶνες δὲν ἀναβάλλωνται ὅταν παίζη ἡ Ἐθνικὴ Αὐστραλίας γιατὶ νὰ ἀναβάλλωνται γιὰ τὴν ἀκινητοποίηση ἑνὸς μόνον μέσου ἀναφορᾶς;

Γιατὶ ἡ Ὁμοσπονδία δὲν ἔκανε ἐπίσημη ἀνακοίνωση γιὰ τὴν ἀναβολὴ τῶν ἀγώνων στὸ νΤύπο παρά ἀφεθηκε στούς δημοσιογράφους νὰ μάθουν ἀπό τούς προέδρους τῶν ὁμάδων ὅτι οἱ πρόεδροι τῶν ἀντιπάλων τούς πῆλε φώνησαν ὅτι δέν παίζουν διότι ἀπλῶς δὲν θέλουν νὰ ταξιδέψουν μὲ τραῖνο;

Ἀφέθηκε δηλαδὴ τό ἐθνικό πρωτάθλημα στίς διαθέσεις τῶν ἰθυνόντων οἱ ὁποῖοι νομίζουν ὅτι ἔχουν ὡρισμένη ὑποχρέωση ἀπέναντι τῶν φιλάθλων.

Ἂν ὑπῆρχε μία ἐξαίρεση στὴν ὅλη ὑπόθεση ἡ ὁποία θά δικαιολογοῦσε τὴν ἀναβολή τῶν ἀγώνων ἦταν αὐτὴ τοῦ ταξιδιοῦ τῆς Βρισβάνης ὅπου ἡ ἀπόσταση εἶναι πολὺ μεγάλη ἀκόμη καὶ γιὰ τραῖνο. Γιατ ὅμως ἡ Σαίντ Τζώρτζ ἀγνόησε κανονισμούς καὶ φιλάθλους;

Ποιός ἀπό τούς ἰθύνοντες τῆς Ἐθνικῆς κατηγορίας εἶναι ὑπεύθυνος γιά τὴν ὅλη ἀνωμαλία; Καὶ ἂν τύχη ἢ ἔτυχε νὰ ὑπάρξη μία παρόμοια ἀπεργία ἡ ὁποία θά κρατήση πάνω ἀπό ἕνα μῆνα τί θά γίνη τό πρωτάθλημα; Θά ἐξακολουθήσουν νὰ δικαιολογοῦνται ὅλοι ἀπέναντι τῶν φιλάθλων ὅτι τό τραῖνο πειράζει τούς παίκτες;

Ποιά εἶναι ἡ θέση τῆς ὁμοσπονδίας σέ τέτοιες περιπτώσεις;

Οἱ διοργανωτὲς τοῦ ἐθνικοῦ πρωταθλήματος τί θά ἔχουν νά ποῦν ὅταν αὐτή ἡ δικαιολογία δὲν στέκεται;

Καί στό κάτω κάτω γιατί δὲν μᾶς πληροφοροῦν σχετικά μέ τό πῶς σκέπτονται ἢ ἐργάζονται;

Τί εἴδους πρωτάθλημα βλέπουμε;
